

Doctorate in Audiology Program awarded full accreditation.

The Doctorate in Audiology Program (Au.D.), which provides advanced academic and clinical preparation in assessment and treatment of disorders of hearing and balance, was awarded full accreditation by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Assoc. in October 2005. The accreditation provides national recognition of the high quality of this educational program.

View program description