We invite all K-12 Teachers and Administrators to join us during the summer of 2009 for an extraordinary program on the campus of Southern Illinois University Edwardsville (SIUE) and in Springfield, Illinois. In each of the two, one-week workshops we will explore Abraham Lincoln’s life in Springfield and New Salem Village, Illinois and the political and historical challenges he faced as President. Join us at SIUE as we hear from outstanding Lincoln scholars drawn from universities in the St. Louis area. Following a day of welcome and discussions, we will tour the new Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum and Library, renowned for its use of interactive technological exhibits as well as artifacts belonging to the Lincoln family.

STIPEND, TENURE, AND CONDITIONS OF AWARD
There is no cost for this workshop and stipends and travel funds are provided to participants to augment any incidental needs. Teachers selected to participate will receive a stipend of $750. Travel supplements will be available within two weeks after each workshop is completed.

GRADUATE CREDIT and CONTINUING EDUCATION
Optional: Participants who might want graduate credit (History or Education) will be provided with an SIUE graduate tuition waiver for up to three units of graduate course credit for this workshop (University fees apply). Registration will be processed on campus. We can document your attendance and/or provide you CPDUs credit (minor fee).
