University of Northern Colorado

Moving Expense Reimbursement Instructions and Information:

Costs associated with relocating a new UNC employee will be funded from a centralized budget monitored by the Human Resources Department. Any amounts anticipated to exceed $2,500 will require pre-approval by the appropriate vice president. All moving expense reimbursements shall be clearly stated in the employment letter.

Instructions for Moving Expense Reimbursement:

1. Employee being reimbursed needs to fill out Moving Expense Reimbursement Tax Worksheet found at Financial Services, General Accounting, website http://www.unco.edu/acctservices/within 60 days after expenses were paid or incurred in order for any of the expenses to be considered non taxable.
2. Employee needs to sign Moving Expense Reimbursement Tax Worksheet.
3. Employee must attach original receipts (copies of credit card statements are not acceptable) to an 8x10 piece of paper and attach to the Moving Expense Reimbursement Tax Worksheet.
4. The Hiring Authority, who agreed upon the reimbursement prior to the move, received proper approvals if necessary and included the amounts in the employment letter, must sign the form.
5. The form must also be approved and signed by the Executive Director of Human Resources and a person with Approval Authority on the FOAP paying for this reimbursement.
6. The Tax Worksheet with signatures and original receipts must be sent to Lacey Snyder in General Accounting, Campus Box 44. Accounting will review the forms and make sure that it is filled out correctly with appropriate signatures.
7. Once approved and signed by accounting, the form will be given to Accounts Payable for processing the reimbursement. A copy will also be sent to the payroll office, so that the taxable and non taxable portions are properly reflected on the employees W-2.
8. Accounts Payable will scan in copies of the original receipts and send the original receipts back to the employee to keep with their IRS files.

FAQ’s:

What authority governs moving expense reimbursement?
2. State of Colorado Fiscal Rules, Chapter 2, Section 9

Will UNC pay for my moving expenses?
UNC may reimburse your moving or relocation expenses. Any reimbursement amount will be negotiated and confirmed between the Employee and Hiring Authority prior to the move.
Do I need to submit receipts in order to be reimbursed?
Yes, original receipts must be attached to an 8x10 piece of paper and must accompany the Moving Expense Reimbursement Tax Worksheet.

When do my receipts need to be turned in to UNC?
Receipts must be submitted by the employee within 60 days after the expenses were paid or incurred in order to comply with IRS Publication 521. Any receipts that are not submitted within this time and are reimbursed will be subject to tax.

Who in Accounting do I contact with questions regarding moving expense reimbursement?
Lacey Snyder, 970-351-1828, lacey.snyder@unco.edu

Will this reimbursement show up on my W-2?
Yes, both the taxable and non taxable portion will be reported on the employee’s W-2.

What portion of my moving expense reimbursement is taxable, which is non-taxable?
The total taxable portion of the moving expense reimbursement will be shown on the Moving Expense Reimbursement Tax Worksheet. The total nontaxable portion is also calculated by this worksheet. Additional information regarding the taxable and non taxable portion can be found at the www.irs.gov in IRS Publication 521.
