Students are packing up to go home and at the same time studying for finals. To say the least, next week will be a stressful one.

To help students unwind and have a little break, the WRC/Stryker will be providing food and a place to relax at Scott-Willcoxon hall next week.

There will be plenty of food, music, and places to study, so feel free to come on in.

If you have any questions or comments about this event, or would simply like more information, please do not hesitate to email Yvette Lucero-Nguyen at yvette.luceronguyen@unco.edu
