

Sabrina Wilsdon

Parent Report

9/21/06

Sabrina is a good friend, affectionate daughter, caring sister, and engaged learner. She is as eager to learn to read as she is to plan an American Girl sleepover with her best friends. She has a natural social grace and is working on standing up for herself. Every day she wakes up cheerful, cares for her guinea pig, sings, reads, draws, and loves her family and friends.

Strengths

Social connections to peers
Loyal to friends
Low anxiety
Comfortable with physical contact
Singing and music
Enthusiastic learner
Willing to try, even when it's difficult
Transitions easily
Follows classroom routines and rules

Interests

America Girls
Ballet
Horse-back riding
Sleepovers
Parties
Play dates
Singing
Reading
Visiting family in California
Traveling

Needs

Communication strategies for all mediums- verbal, reading writing
Generalizing concepts across mediums and environments
More time to process when response is required
Options for helping others understand her speech
Increase expectations from staff and self
Opportunities to be a leader
Talk to her about strategies, tools and her supports
Needs lot of repetition to grasp concept, master skills or anticipate events
Self-advocacy