

SAMPLE SCHEDULE

120 credit hour program
 40 semester credits for UNC Liberal Arts Core (LAC) requirements
 62 semester credits in the Interpreting Major (INTR courses)
 18 semester credits in an Emphasis area (INTR courses):
 Community Interpreting, Educational Interpreting and Legal Interpreting or with advisement a student may create a generalist interpreter emphasis

Below is an example of a course schedule that a first-time freshman might select in order to complete the 120-semester hour degree program with an emphasis in educational interpreting. Students can take the 40-credit hours of liberal arts courses from an accredited institution of higher education in their own community and transfer them to the University of Northern Colorado. Once accepted, students will be assigned an advisor to assist them with schedules.
