VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT FOR ELECTED POSITIONS WITH ADDITIONAL VACANCIES NOTED **
on the Faculty Senate, and University Boards, Councils, and Committees

* * * * *

Below is a list of the vacancies for which the Faculty Senate Elections Committee will be holding elections this semester. Please note the following sections from the Board Policy Manual in the Faculty Constitution that apply to the elections process.

1. Section 2-3-105(4) states that elections to the Faculty Senate “shall be completed before elections are held for the University councils/boards.” Therefore, elections for the Senate will be held first followed by elections for the University boards, councils, and committees.
2. In considering eligible nominees from the voting faculty, section 2-3-105(2) states, “No faculty member shall hold membership on more than one University council/board, including the Faculty Senate” The Constitution defines major councils/boards as the Faculty Senate, Liberal Arts Council, Graduate Council, Professional Education Council, Undergraduate Council, Faculty Research and Publications Board, and the Constitutional Review Authority.
3. For the Graduate Council elections, section 2-3-107(3)(d)(IV) states that only graduate faculty may vote and be elected to the Council.
4. For the Professional Education Council elections, section 2-3-107(4)(c)(I) states that only teacher education faculty may vote and be elected to the Council.
