

2008-2009 GLBT Events

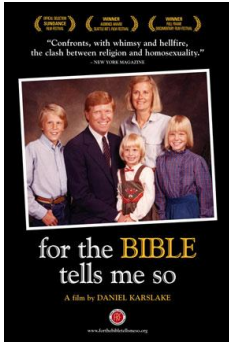

Be sure to check in with the GLBT Resource Office for the latest schedule information and newly added events!

Saturday, September 6th

"Bears Give Back" Carnival

1:00pm-4:00pm on the Turner Green

-fun activities to help raise money for AIDS research

Wednesday, October 15th

MOVIE NIGHT: "For the Bible Tells Me So"

7:00pm-9:00pm in the Student Center (location TBA)

-a fun film that dispels every homophobic claim the religious right can make, featuring MEL WHITE, UNC's special guest on October 22nd

Saturday, October 11th

National Coming Out Day
Events and Times TBA

-Possibilities include a Drag Show! Check with the GLBT Resource Office for updates as the date comes closer.

Wednesday, October 22nd

MEL WHITE- special guest speaker and Q&A

7:00pm-9:00pm in the Student Center Panorama Room

-A MUST ATTEND EVENT! Come hear the leading voice in our struggle for equality and learn the latest about how the homophobic, hateful policies of the extreme religious right affect us all, Christian or not.

Wednesday, November 5th

MOVIE NIGHT: "V For Vendetta"

7:00pm-9:00pm in the Student Center
(location TBA)

Monday, December 1st

World AIDS Day

Ongoing AIDS display in the Student Center

DAY of SILENCE

Friday, April 17th

National Day of Silence

Specific Events and Times TBA

-Day-long outdoor rainbow flag display, evening vigil followed by a fun event!

Friday, April 24th

QUEER PROM

9:00pm-midnight in the University Center Ballrooms

-Finish the school year with a night of fun, music, dancing, and food! Formal photos, royalty, fun games, and lavish prizes will make this a night never to be forgotten! Open to EVERYONE! Bring your friends!

