Notes –

** Study abroad and internships abroad for summer, semester, or academic year are not required but are highly recommended. If student opts not to do study abroad, elective and language credits can be completed on UNC campus as well. Study and work abroad helps to deepen the Asian Studies learning experience overall, and improves résumé.

Courses with # designation must focus at least 1/3 on Asian/Asian American materials, and should have prior approval from advisor before enrolling in the course.
