

WHO WANTS TO BE A PRAIRIE DOG? HÁISHA T'ÁÁ K'AD DLÓÓ SILÍÍ?

ERS

ANN CLARK

71.975
54.7 wa

A PUBLICATION OF THE EDUCATION DIVISION U.S. OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Harold L. Ickes, Secretary

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

John Collier, Commissioner

William Zimmerman, Jr., Assistant Commissioner

EDUCATION DIVISION

Willard W. Beatty, Director

Paul L. Fickinger, Associate Director

P. W. Danielson, Assistant Director

Authorized by Congress

Printing Department
Phoenix Indian School
Phoenix, Arizona

September, 1940
5000

WHO WANTS TO BE A PRAIRIE DOG?

for little Navahos who have not learned to hurry

HÁISHA' T'ÁÁ K'AD
DLÓÓ' SILÍÍ'?

Díí naaltsos
Naabeehó yázhí tsííł
'ídlí t'ah doo yídahoł'aahígí
bá

This little boy is

Mr. Many-Goat's son.

If you do not believe his story

it is because you are not short,

nor fat,

nor slow,

and never, never have you been down a prairie dog hole.

Díí 'ashkii Hastiin Tł'ízí-Łání
bighe'.

Bahani' doo deinohdlánígíí doo

'ádanolts'íísí da, dóó doo danohtsaaz da, dóó tsííł

danohłí, 'áádóó dlóó'

ba'áán góne' t'ah doo

'adaahkáah da.

WHO WANTS TO BE A PRAIRIE DOG? HÁISHA' T'ÁÁ K'AD DLÓÓ' SILÍÍ'?

by ANN CLARK
ILLUSTRATED BY VAN TSIHNAHJINNIE LINGUISTICS BY ROBERT W. YOUNG
JOHN P. HARRINGTON

A PUBLICATION OF THE EDUCATION DIVISION U.S. OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

EDITED BY WILLARD W. BEATTY, DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

