

Research in the Rockies: Research Summit on Braille Reading and Writing

June 10-12, 2010, Denver, Colorado at the Denver Marriott City Center

Call for Papers

Sponsored by

National Center for Severe and Sensory Disabilities (NCSSD)
Bresnahan-Halstead Center on Disabilities
The National Federation of the Blind (NFB) Jernigan Institute

Purpose:

The purpose of this conference is to explore current and emerging research from a wide range of disciplines that pertains to Braille reading and writing.

Call-for-Papers Submission Guidelines:

- Submit 250-word abstract online at: www.unco.edu/ncssd
- Submission deadline has been extended to February 1, 2010
- Anything submitted after midnight on February 1, 2010 will not be accepted
- Presentation formats:
 - a. Research paper presentation (20 minutes)
 - b. Panel (minimum 60 minutes)
 - c. Poster (posters will be presented in roundtable sessions)
- If you have problems with the online submission form, please contact: ncssd@unco.edu
- Please note that any handout material must be made available in Braille, large print, and electronic formats. Provide explanations for all PowerPoint presentations.

Proposals Invited from:

Cognitive scientists, linguists, educators, rehabilitation specialists, neurologists, sociologists and experimental psychologists, researchers in haptic and tactile perception, demographers, occupational therapists, and others