Before You Come to New Student Orientation or Parent Orientation

If your parent or other guest will be attending Orientation with you, they need to sign up for Parent Orientation. They can sign up at www.unco.edu/summerconf/Register/register.html.

What to bring to Orientation:

- Your UNC Bear Number (typically 801XXXXXX) – this is your student identification number and will be used by many offices, so memorize it ASAP
- Casual dress and comfortable walking shoes
- Results of your Spanish Placement Exam-If you are a student who is intending to take a Spanish course at UNC, you must take the Spanish Placement exam and bring the results with you to orientation. The Placement Exam can be accessed on-line at www.unco.edu/hispstds/span_placement_exam.html. You will work with an advisor from the Spanish program at orientation
- If you have not sent your immunization records to the Student Health Center, you should bring them to orientation
- Your Bear Pride!

What to send to the University:

- Transcripts from ALL other institutions from which you will receive college credit
 - Send transcripts to the Office of Admissions at least two weeks before your session; if that is not possible, bring transcripts with you to Orientation
- Immunization documentation
 - Send immunization documents to the Student Health Center at least two weeks before your session; if that is not possible, bring documentation to Orientation
