Pause/Reactivate Admissions

When pausing a program or reactivating a paused program, a Pause/Reactivate Admissions Form is needed.

Temporary admission pauses constitute a major change and must be fully approved through the Provost step before they can go into effect. HLC Notification is required for pauses lasting more than one semester (this will be managed by the Office of the Provost when you submit the form). For even one semester, a note must be placed in the catalog about the pause.

Once a program pause has been approved, a Pause/Reactivate Admissions Form will need to be re-submitted to re-open admissions when the program is ready. If the program is going to be permanently closed, a Program Deactivation Form will need to be used instead.

Pause and reactivated programs can be done in Fall/Spring/Summer terms.
