2016 Graduate Teaching Assistant Conference
Presentation Proposal Guidelines

Deadline: Submit a proposal by Jan. 6, 2016
Acceptance Notification Deadline: Feb. 28, 2016

You can submit up to two proposals.

Click here to submit a proposal.

Proposal Guidelines:
• Title no longer than 10-15 words
• Provide a brief session description-up to 150 words
• Identify three goals and three learning outcomes
• Describe presentation method and maximum number of participants: poster presentation, lecture, activity based (e.g., group work, content application, panel discussion, round table discussion, etc.)
• Identify a preferred time slot (we will do our best to accommodate all requests)
• Specify the presentation equipment needed

Topics of Interest:
• Educational technology applications in the classroom (YouTube, SnapChat, MOOCs, etc.)
• Utilization of classroom tools (document cameras, clickers)
• Innovative teaching strategies in STEM fields
• Innovative teaching or coaching strategies for the visual and performing arts
• Presentation of original research related to instruction and its application to TAs
• Classroom environment (course planning, conflict management strategies, creation of a class dialog)
• Methods for assessing students’ learning outcomes
• Student engagement strategies for the classroom
• First year teaching assistant experience
• Strategies and behaviors for promoting equity and inclusion in the classroom
• Professionalism: Balancing roles as teaching assistant and graduate student

Proposed sessions may be generally applicable or discipline specific. Please contact Aubreena DeForest at aubreena.deforest@unco.edu with any questions.