September 16, 2013

Dear UNC Students:

We know many of you may have been affected by the devastating flooding that has hit our area. In an effort to keep you connected and informed we want to provide you with the following information.

If you have flood-related academic or financial concerns, we want to help you. For example, if you cannot attend classes, lost course materials or books in the flooding, cannot access online course materials due to electricity or internet disruption, need short-term emergency financial aid, are having difficulties because of rescheduled extended campus classes, or you are experiencing physical, emotional or mobility difficulties, please contact us. Undergraduate students should call the Dean of Students Office at 970.351.2796 or email to dos@unco.edu. Graduate students should call the Graduate School at 970.351.2831 or email to grad.school@unco.edu.

For further information about the resources available to our students, please see the link to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) and links to community resources.

Best regards,

Dr. Linda Black
Dean of the Graduate School

Dr. Katrina Rodriguez
AVP for Student Engagement and Dean of Students