

YOU got this!

College is a journey and finding a place you can thrive is essential. As a UNC student, you can feel confident you'll have access to the coursework and learning opportunities needed to set yourself up for success.

Visit your My UNC Admissions Portal

Your hub for all things future-student related. Find your counselor, update your information and view and complete your admitted student next steps. unco.edu/admissions/admitted-students

Apply for Financial Aid

Submission of the FAFSA/CASFA is required to receive need-based financial aid including the UNC Tuition Promise benefits for those who qualify. June 1 priority deadline.

Submit the UNC Scholarship Application

Used to award over $4 Million annually to current and incoming students, this one application is accessible via the My UNC Admissions Portal. Apply every year and ASAP!

Save your Space

Submit the 'Tell Us Your Plans' decision form in your My UNC Admissions Portal to accept your offer and let us know you'll be attending UNC!

**Must be completed to apply for housing and sign-up for New Student Orientation.*

Activate your Student Ursa Account

Ursa: both a bear-shaped constellation of stars and the name of the portal used by all UNC students to access course registration, student billing and more.

Future students must activate their Ursa account to apply for housing, submit the UNC scholarship app and to view and accept financial aid.

Apply for Housing

Choose from over 15 residence halls and 15 themed residential learning communities. The housing contract opens in December and rooms are selected on a first come, first served basis.

Plan your Admitted Student Visit

Keep an eye out for invitations to exclusive admitted student events. Meet future bears, engage with academic experiences, explore housing, connect with faculty/staff and confidently complete your next steps! View dates on the admitted student page today.

Sign-up for New Student Orientation

NSO is an on-campus program that takes place on select days throughout the summer. Learn valuable tools, build community, get your UNC Bear ID card and register for fall classes. Sign-up opens in March and sessions will fill.

Admitted Student Next Steps

As you complete these Admitted Student Next Steps, we are here to support you every step of the way. Visit the admitted student page to access your portal and connect with us!
