Colorado 1st-Year Admission Guarantee

UNC's First-Year Admissions Guarantee for Colorado residents removes the guesswork from knowing whether UNC is a college option for you. All students who meet the criteria outlined below will qualify for automatic admission into the University of Northern Colorado.*

REQUIREMENTS

Beginning with the Fall 2023 entry term, students who meet criteria outlined below are eligible for UNC's Colorado First-Year Admission Guarantee:

- Current Colorado (CO) High School Student
- 3.0 Cumulative High School GPA (Weighted)
- 4 Years of English
- 4 Years of Math (or 3 years of math with at least a B in Algebra 2)
- 3 Years of Physical / Lab Sciences
- 3 Years of Social Sciences
- Meet all other high school graduation requirements
- Submit application for admission by March 1 of the enrollment year

Admission to UNC requires submission of documents including school transcripts and a complete application for admission (Bear Application or Common Application). At times, additional required documentation may be requested by the Office of Admission before receiving an official decision.

Graduates of a Colorado High School who, since graduating, have not enrolled at another college or university are eligible.*

Applicants who do not meet the criteria above will still receive full consideration for admission through a holistic review of factors including applicants' academic course selection and rigor, overall GPA and grade trends as well as their involvement, leadership experiences, academic reflections, personal statement essay and letters of recommendation, as provided.
