

Resolution and Emeritus Recommendation

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board of Trustees approve the resolution of appreciation for President Andy Feinstein and consider awarding the honorary title of President Emeritus to Dr. Andy Feinstein upon his conclusion of service as President of the University in August 2026.

BACKGROUND

It is a common practice in higher education to recognize presidents who have provided distinguished service to their institutions through the honorary designation of President Emeritus. Dr. Feinstein has served as President of the University since 2018 and has provided significant leadership and contributions to the institution during his tenure. The Board may wish to recognize those contributions through the award of President Emeritus status.
