Internship Program Admissions*Briefly describe in narrative form important information to assist potential applicants in assessing their likely fit

High Plains PIC clinical training sites include the Colorado Center for Assessment, Educational Service Unit #13, Greeley-Evans District 6, Weld County Re-8 School District, and Smith Psychological Services. Options in Psychology, LLC is also a member site of the HP PIC consortium. However, they will not be accepting an intern for the 2026-27 internship year. Of the active sites for 2026-27, three are located in Colorado in the cities of Fort Collins, Fort Lupton, and Greeley; one is located in Scottsbluff, Nebraska and one site is in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Interns are afforded a wide variety of clinical opportunities that highlight the diversity of addressing the mental health needs of individuals who live in rural communities.

High Plains PIC offers interns a unique opportunity to advance their clinical training in rural (or rural-serving) settings, areas in which behavioral healthcare is often in short supply. Interns are afforded rich clinical experiences that highlight the specific demands and shared experiences within these small communities, as well as identify and creatively address the common barriers inherent in rural health. As providers, interns participate in High Plains PIC's goal to expand the capacity of underserved rural communities to address behavioral healthcare needs through integrated services. Furthermore, all training experiences are provided within the context of a developmental perspective and trauma-informed care.
