Please return the completed form to the borrower or the borrower's representative. The holder(s) of the borrower's loan(s) (see definition in Section 5) may contact you for additional information or documentation.

If you submit copies, each copy must include an original signature from you or your representative.

SECTION 5: DEFINITIONS

- The Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program includes Federal Stafford Loans (both subsidized and unsubsidized), Federal Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS), Federal PLUS Loans, and Federal Consolidation Loans.
- The Federal Perkins Loan (Perkins Loan) Program includes Federal Perkins Loans, National Direct Student Loans (NDSL), and National Defense Student Loans (NDSL).
- The William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program includes Federal Direct Stafford/Ford Loans (Direct Subsidized Loans), Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford/Ford Loans (Direct Unsubsidized Loans), Federal Direct PLUS Loans (Direct PLUS Loans), and Federal Direct Consolidation Loans (Direct Consolidation Loans).
- A conditional discharge due to a total and permanent disability allows you (and, if applicable, any endorser) to stop making payments on your loan(s) during the conditional discharge period (see definition) while ED evaluates your eligibility for a final discharge. A conditional discharge is granted when ED makes an initial determination that you have a total and permanent disability as defined in this section. See also Sections 6 and 7.
- The conditional discharge period begins on the date that you became totally and permanently disabled, as certified by the physician who completes Section 3, and lasts for up to three years. The conditional discharge period ends when ED either grants a final discharge or determines that you do not qualify for a final discharge. During the conditional discharge period, ED will monitor your eligibility for a final discharge. See also Sections 6 and 7.
- A final discharge due to a total and permanent disability condition cancels your obligation (and, if applicable, any endorser's obligation) to repay the remaining balance on your FFEL Program, Perkins Loan Program, and/or Direct Loan Program loan. ED grants a final discharge if you meet certain conditions during and at the end of the conditional discharge period. See Section 7.
- The holder of your FFEL Program loan(s) may be a lender, a guaranty agency, or the U.S. Department of Education (ED). The holder of your Perkins Loan Program loan(s) may be a school you attended or ED. The holder of your Direct Loan Program loan(s) is ED.
- State includes the 50 United States, the District of Columbia, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, and the Republic of Palau.
- If you have a total and permanent disability, this means that you are unable to work and earn money because of an injury or illness that is expected to continue indefinitely or result in death. NOTE: (1) This standard may be different from standards used under other programs in connection with occupational disability or eligibility for social service benefits. (2) You cannot be considered to have a total and permanent disability if your condition existed at the time your loan(s) was made, unless your condition has substantially deteriorated so that you are now totally and permanently disabled.

SECTION 6: LOAN DISCHARGE PROCESS / TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR LOAN DISCHARGE

1. If your loan holder (other than ED) determines, based on a review of your loan discharge application, that you appear to meet the eligibility requirements for a loan discharge based on total and permanent disability, your loan(s) will be assigned to ED. For FFEL Program loans currently held by a lender, this determination will be made by both your lender and guaranty agency. ED will be your new loan holder.
2. After receiving your loan(s), ED will review the physician's certification in Section 3 and other information relating to your application for loan discharge. Based on the results of this review, ED will make an initial determination on your application. If ED determines that you have a total and permanent disability, you will be notified that a conditional discharge has been granted for a period of up to three years from the date that you became totally and permanently disabled. If ED determines that you do not have a total and permanent disability, you will be notified of that determination and you must resume repayment of your loan(s).
3. During the conditional discharge period: (A) you are not required to make any payments on your loan(s); (B) you are not considered to be delinquent or in default on your loan(s), unless you were delinquent or in default at the time the conditional discharge was granted; (C) you must promptly notify ED if your annual earnings from employment exceed the poverty line amount for a family of two; (D) you must promptly notify ED of any changes in your address or telephone number; and (E) if requested, you must provide ED with additional documentation or information related to your eligibility for loan discharge. This may include, but is not limited to, documentation of your annual earnings from employment.
4. If you meet the conditions described in Section 7, Item 4, during and at the end of the conditional discharge period, ED will grant a final discharge of your loan(s) at the end of the conditional discharge period. The discharge will be reported to credit bureaus, and any payments you made after the date you became totally and permanently disabled will be returned to you.
5. If you do not meet the conditions described in Section 7, Item 4, at any time during or at the end of the conditional discharge period, the conditional discharge period will end and you will not receive a final discharge. This means that you will be responsible for repaying your loan(s) in accordance with the terms of your promissory note(s). However, you will not be required to pay interest that accrued on your loan(s) from the date ED made an initial determination that you were totally and permanently disabled until the date the conditional discharge period ended. ED will continue to be your loan holder.

SECTION 7: ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR LOAN DISCHARGE

1. Your condition must not have existed at the time your loan(s) was made, unless your condition has substantially deteriorated so that you are now totally and permanently disabled.
2. If you are applying for discharge of a consolidation loan, your condition must not have existed at the time any of the loan(s) you consolidated were made, unless your condition has substantially deteriorated so that you are now totally and permanently disabled. If requested, you must provide the holder of your consolidation loan(s) or ED with the disbursement dates of the loan(s) you consolidated.
3. To qualify for a conditional discharge, you must have a total and permanent disability, as defined in Section 5. This must be certified by a physician in Section 3.
4. To qualify for a final discharge, you must meet the following conditions during and at the end of the conditional discharge period described in Section 6: (A) your annual earnings from employment must not exceed the poverty line amount (see NOTE below) for a family of two in your state (regardless of your actual family size), and (B) you must not receive a new loan under the FFEL Program, the Perkins Loan Program, or the Direct Loan Program.
NOTE: A physician cannot certify that you have a total and permanent disability if, at the time of the physician's certification, you are able to work and earn money in any capacity. However, if you attempt to work during the conditional discharge period, you may earn up to the poverty line amount each year during that period. This standard allows you to try to work without being disqualified from receiving a final discharge. The poverty line amounts are updated annually. ED will notify you of the current poverty line amounts during each year of the conditional discharge period.

SECTION 9: ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS TO RECEIVE FUTURE LOANS

1. If you are granted a final discharge due to total and permanent disability, you are not eligible to receive future loans under the FFEL, Perkins Loan, or Direct Loan programs unless: (A) you obtain a certification from a physician that you are able to engage in substantial gainful activity, and (B) you sign a statement acknowledging that the new loan you receive cannot be discharged in the future on the basis of any injury or illness present at the time the new loan is made, unless your condition substantially deteriorates so that you are again totally and permanently disabled.
2. If you are granted a conditional discharge of your loan(s), based on a total and permanent disability and you request a new FFEL, Perkins Loan, or Direct Loan program loan during the conditional discharge period, you are not eligible to receive the new loan unless: (A) you obtain a certification from a physician that you are able to engage in substantial gainful activity; (B) you sign a statement acknowledging that neither the previous conditionally discharged loan(s) nor the new loan you receive can be discharged in the future on the basis of any injury or illness present when you applied for a total and permanent disability discharge or at the time the new loan is made, unless your condition substantially deteriorates so that you are again totally and permanently disabled; (C) you sign a statement acknowledging that the conditionally discharged loan(s) will be removed from conditional discharge status; and (D) ED has removed the conditionally discharged loan(s) from conditional discharge status (see Section 6, Item 5).
