

REQUEST FOR FORBEARANCE FEDERAL PERKINS LOAN

INSTRUCTIONS

Before your request can be granted, the entire form must be completed. Be sure to sign, date and return it to our office in the enclosed envelope. You must continue making your monthly payments until the forbearance is approved. You will receive notice of the approval or denial of this request.

FORBEARANCE

Forbearance allows you to temporarily cease making payments, but you are still responsible for the interest that accrues on your loan. You may pay this interest monthly as it accrues, or allow it to be added to your outstanding principal balance during the forbearance period. The university will not grant any future requests until the accrued interest is brought current from the previous forbearance period.

☐

Check this box ONLY if you wish to make interest only payments during the forbearance period.
