*The program's first Ph.D. degrees were conferred in 2010.

For program admissions policies that allow students to enter with credit for prior graduate work please refer to the CP Student Handbook, in the Advising Procedures section, by going to the current students' tab at: <http://www.unco.edu/cebs/applied-psychology-counselor-education/counseling-psychology/doctor-of-philosophy/>

Please note. In January 2010, the Counseling Psychology doctoral program became an APA-accredited Ph.D. program. Prior to this, our program was an APA-accredited Psy.D. program since 1995. We are now only a Ph.D. program. The program's first Ph.D. degrees were conferred in 2010.

Program Costs

Description	2021-2022 1 st -year Cohort Cost
Tuition for full-time students (in-state)	$20,550
Tuition for full-time students (out-of-state)	$38,880
Tuition per credit hour for part-time students ( if applicable enter amount; if not applicable enter "NA" )	$685
University/institution fees or costs	$3,189
Additional estimated fees or costs to students (e.g. books, travel, etc.)	$800

Note. Tuition per credit hour for part-time students is based on in-state tuition cost; see the cost and tuition calculator websites below for tuition per credit hour for part-time out-of-state students.

The cost of attending UNC varies depending upon residency status and the number of credits taken in a semester. The above tuition cost for full-time students is based on 12 credit hours each semester and 6 credit hours per summer (i.e., 30 credits total). The "university/institution fees or costs" listed include student fees based on 30 credits take each year.

The Counseling Psychology Program is a member of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education's (WICHE) Western Regional Graduate Program. What membership in the WRGP means is that applicants who are residents of 15 western states (Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming) can qualify for resident tuition status starting their first year in the program. Applicants who are US citizens, but residents from other states would need to pay nonresident tuition their first year on campus but could then qualify for resident tuition status after 1 year in Colorado. International students currently remain classified as nonresidents throughout their degree program. Current information regarding tuition and fees can be found on the Costs website by going to: <http://www.unco.edu/costs/>

For more information regarding the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE) go to: <http://www.wiche.edu/>. For more information regarding WICHE's Western Regional Graduate Programs (WRGP) go to: <http://wrgp.wiche.edu/>

Students are eligible for federal loans, scholarships and grants. In the past 10 years all incoming students, second year students, and the majority of other returning students were offered assistantships through the program which paid for a portion of the student's tuition and gave a stipend (contingent on performance). Some students obtained assistantships across the campus (e.g., Career Services, Disability Support Services, University 101, Cultural Centers, School of Psychological Sciences). For more information regarding financial aid, please refer to <http://www.unco.edu/ofa/index.asp>
