Call for Chapter Abstracts– Identity Analogies in Student Affairs in Higher Education

The ACPA MultiRacial Network \(MRN\) is proud to support Dr. Aerial A. Ashlee (St. Cloud State University) and incoming MRN Co-Chair Lisa Combs (Loyola University) co-editors of a forthcoming book project on identity analogies in student affairs in higher education. Identity analogies are comparisons and parallels drawn across and between identity experiences to make meaning and foster solidarity across difference. Chapter abstracts should be no more than 250 words and should situate the proposed chapter within a social justice pedagogy lens, exploring how identity analogies can be used as tools to facilitate greater understanding, learning, empathy, and/or allyship. The preferred deadline for chapter abstract proposals is February 14, 2020. For more information and to apply click here.

NASPA 2020 Doctoral Seminar

Join us at the Doctoral Seminar at the 2020 NASPA Annual Conference in Austin, TX. Happening on Sunday, March 29th from 12pm-4pm CST, the doctoral seminar was created to provide support and information for higher education and student affairs doctoral students to help them successfully navigate the process. Faculty, administrators, and doctoral students will facilitate conversations and structured time to reflect about how to be successful in the doctoral experience. In addition to including time for networking with a variety of groups, this seminar will also expose attendees to different pathways that one can take after acquiring their doctorate.

Registration is due January 31, 2020. You can register at this link: http://apps.naspa.org/cfp/evt_frm_user.cfm?event_id=2345. If you have any questions, please email Jill Dunlap at jdunlap@naspa.org
