

Cooperating Teacher Agreement Form: To be completed by the cooperating teacher

Thank you for agreeing to serve as a cooperating teacher for our teacher candidate. You will receive a $100 stipend or 3 UNC credits for your service. You will be paid after the end of the practicum term. The information you will need is provided in the teacher candidate's Practicum Handbook. The teacher candidate is responsible for getting this information to you in a timely fashion. A consultant from the UNC will visit within the first week of the semester. The University Consultant can answer any questions you might have about your role.

In order to serve as a cooperating teacher you must hold a valid Colorado Professional teaching license in one of the following areas: Generalist, Moderate Needs, Severe Needs: Affective, Severe Needs: Cognitive, Profound Needs, Educationally Mentally Handicapped, or Educationally Handicapped. Please give a copy of your license to the teacher candidate. The teacher candidate must submit a copy of your license with this application.

You must also be willing to mentor the teacher candidate throughout the semester. This includes at least 3-5 observations with written and verbal feedback, weekly contact for planning, providing feedback, etc. and completion of the Performance-based Checklist and Professional Disposition Qualities Rubric. You may also be asked to help the candidate as needed with instruction, materials, classroom management, and development and implementation of the IEP.
