The Center for Women's and Gender Equity Lactation Station also has a hospital-grade multi-user breast pump available for use, and attachments can be purchased through Medela's site at: www.medelabreastfeedingus.com/products/category/lactina

Privacy Screens:

Don't have time to visit a lactation station? The University of Northern Colorado also offers screens that create a private space for you to express your breast milk at your desk or cubicle. Contact Alena Clark at alena.clark@unco.edu or 970-351-2879 to check-out a privacy screen. You can also find the Screen Rental Policy at:

unco.edu/center-womens-and-gender-equity/what-we-offer/breastfeeding-chestfeeding-support.aspx.

Screens are free and can be checked out for any amount of time.

Lactation Stations are supported by the Center for Women's and Gender Equity and the Nutrition & Dietetics Program
