UPCOMING EVENTS

Emergency Response Preparedness & Active Shooter Training

4/3/2018

11:30 am—1:00 pm

This training will provide important information explaining what you should be prepared for and your role, if an emergency occurs on campus. Information will also be shared about what different types of responses you might see from emergency personnel on campus, depending on the emergency.
Location: Cand 1375. Lunch will be served to all registered attendees. To reserve your seat, contact cetl@unco.edu

Responding to Conflict: The Art of Dialogue and Reframing

4/4/2018

9:30 am—12:00 pm

The goal of conflict resolution is to listen and receive others' needs and perspectives through dialogue. This session will provide you an opportunity to learn dialogue techniques and reframing, a restatement of words or phrases into neutral, non-judgmental, and/or positive/appreciative terms.
Location: North Residence Hall Lounge. Registration is required for all CETL forums. To reserve your seat, contact cetl@unco.edu

Forever the Love of Hawaii 27th Annual Luau

4/7/2018

5:00 pm –10:00 pm

Please come enjoy our Ha'aheo 'O Hawaii Club's annual luau for some authentic Hawaiian food and hula performances. Our purpose of Lu'au is to share the unique culture, traditions, and the Aloha spirit with UNC and the surrounding community.
Location: UC Grand Ballroom. For more info, contact Nicole Carney at 808-635-2280 or email carn1661@bears.unco.edu.

UNC Appreciation Week

4/9-4/13/2018

all week long

This annual event to encourage awareness of the contributions of those in the UNC community and celebrate what makes UNC special to all Bears. Stop by a table for recognition supplies & join students like Rachael in sharing their appreciation: "I only got to where I am today thanks to the amazing people who have helped me in my journey. My goal in life is to be able to give back in any way I possibly can." – Rachael Carrillo '20 Sociology

Location: Supply tables will be located at UC and Michener Library from 10 am—2 pm.

DREAMers Zone

4/11/2018

9:30 am—12:00 pm

This session focuses on building awareness around the lived experiences of DREAMers (students who identify as undocumented) on the UNC campus. Through the training participants will engage in various activities to increase knowledge on foundational terminology and policy affecting nationality identity, privilege, and advocacy with and for DREAMers and their families at UNC.

Location: North Residence Hall Lounge. For more info, contact contact cetl@unco.edu

VetZone Training

4/12/2018

11:30 am—1:00 pm

Vet Zone Training is a cultural training for Faculty, Staff and Students to become familiar with military, and specifically veteran, culture. It covers the background of the culture as well as the societal and educational difficulties faced by veterans in academia. The Purpose of Vet Zone Training is to educate Faculty, Staff and Students on the basic information, challenges and advantages that are part of being a veteran student so they may promote an environment of safety and understanding to this growing minority. Registration is required for all CETL forums

Location: Cand 1375. Lunch will be served to all registered attendees. To reserve your seat, contact cetl@unco.edu

Campus Culture Corner

Representatives of the UNC governance groups, including the Classified Staff Council Chair, are playing a vital role in the entire process of the Presidential Search Committee. In this national search, the committee conducted first-round interviews with candidates the week of March 5 and will again meet with candidates the first week of April for second interviews.

The Search Committee agreed that its representatives from the campus governance groups will continue to be integrally involved in the selection process until the new president is named. The committee, which consists of both the Board of Trustees and governance group representatives, is very confident that it will reach consensus on a sole finalist for the position. However, if for some reason this is not possible, the Board will fulfill its obligation to make the final decision with a great deal of input from the governance groups.

The plan is to announce the finalist in early April and, shortly thereafter, invite that individual to UNC to meet with the campus community. State law requires a waiting period of 14 days after announcing a finalist before making the hire. Therefore, if all goes as planned, UNC's new president should be hired by approximately mid-April.

This event is a 12 hour event where the motto is, "Cancer doesn't sleep so for one night; neither do we". We will have food and activities to keep you entertained all night. Be sure to sign up and bring cash to the event for snacks and games.

The Bear Pantry lives on the lower level of Michener Library (L-15). Some of you may know we are incurring a temporary financial setback which has resulted in the Pantry being bare. It is sad to see a bare Bear Pantry! It is even more difficult to see students who rely on the pantry walk out without groceries.

Calling all UNC BEARS! The Bear Pantry has seen a 238% increase in individual visits since its "official" opening in Fall 2016, which has impacted our ability to keep our shelves stocked. Please consider donating and supporting the 829 students who have used the Bear Pantry since Fall 2016.

There are many ways of giving depending on your ability or desire to give:

- You can personally bring food items to the pantry at any time. We have a refrigerator, freezer and shelves. This allows us to receive donations of fresh, canned, packaged, or frozen foods.
- You can host a mini-drive within your department and encourage donations from your staff if they wish to participate. I would encourage a relatively short turn-around time from beginning to end of the drive. Feel free to announce in staff meetings, send email reminders, or create a donation "station" for all in your office to see. Let us know if you would like any posters, or LARGE barrel receptacles.
- If you so choose, you can engage in a friendly competition with another department for Bear Bragging rights or other creative incentives!
- Or, if you want to go with a more sustainable option of assisting students who are food insecure, you can fill out the attached payroll deduction form (see last page of newsletter for this form).

We thank you for your commitment to our community and bringing awareness to food insecurity on our campus.

Classified Employee of the Year 2017

The 2017 employee of the year was announced at the 47th Annual Employee Recognition banquet on Monday, March 26th.

Kim Lebsack from Monfort College of Business received the award for Employee of the Year.

“Kim also embraced the responsibility of producing MCB's largest program of the year - Career Week. Involving over 30 businesses, dozens of alumni, and attracting over 500 students, Career Week is an annual series of events that is the highlight of the year for many MCB Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors.”

The council received nominations for 11 individuals across multiple areas on campus. The winner was based on the following demonstrated qualities:

- Dedication: Makes a difference at UNC, and for members of the campus community;
- Professionalism: Consistently goes above and beyond expectations;
- Teamwork: Excels as a team player;
- Motivation: Strives to bring out "Bear Pride" in others, and "Brings education to life".

The other nominees up for the award were: Lisa Finley, Kim Soper, Sharon Lantz, Kathi Bland, Jodi Auch, Margaret Schneider, Maria Jaquez, Sam Salazar, Dru Mark and Mark Gebhardt
