

Rural Alternative Licensure Stipend

The Colorado Center for Rural Education and the Colorado Department of Higher Education seek to encourage talented individuals interested in teaching to enroll in an alternative licensure program and work in a rural or small rural school district in Colorado. The Rural Alternative Licensure Stipend (RALS) provides recipients with up to $6,000 of funding to pay for the costs of their program. Stipend recipients are expected to work in a Colorado rural school district for three (3) years after accepting the RALS.

Application Requirements

Eligible Applicants Must Meet the Following Criteria:

- Be enrolled in an approved Alternative Licensure Program
- Be employed as an educator in a Colorado rural school district.
- Be committed to teach in a Colorado rural school district for three (3) years.
- Maintain communications with the Colorado Center of Rural Education staff to share experiences, complete surveys, and provide a letter from the alternative licensure program provider or administrator verifying the awardee has received their initial license and remains employed in a rural school district.

Eligibility Preference

Awardees must commit to teach for three years in one of the rural school districts (especially small rural school districts with less than 1000 students) that are located 50 miles or more from major metropolitan areas and outside of the Front-Range region of Colorado.

Definition of Rural School District

For the purpose of this stipend, any Colorado school district with a student enrollment of 6500 students or less is defined as a rural school district. Preference for student teaching placement will be given to those school districts that are also located 50 miles or more from major metropolitan areas and outside of the Front-Range region of Colorado.

Phone 970-351-4954 • Office McKee Hall 282A • Email diana.podein@unco.edu •

Web www.unco.edu/colorado-center-for-rural-education •

Mail UNC Colorado Center for Rural Education, 501 20TH Street, Campus Box 106, Greeley, CO 80639-0028