UNC Commencement Mission Statement
University Commencement represents the culmination of a student’s academic achievement. It is a time of celebration and reflection for students, families, friends, faculty and staff. It brings together a diverse community to share the joy of accomplished goals.
Dear UNC Graduates,

Commencement marks a milestone in both your journey of lifelong learning and the life of the University of Northern Colorado. As you reflect on your accomplishments and look forward to new opportunities, know that you are part of more than a century’s tradition on our campus.

In 1890, when civic leaders, educators and citizens from Greeley and across the State of Colorado gathered to celebrate laying the cornerstone of our first building, they spoke of universal education as the foundation for our future. Governor Job A. Cooper told the crowd: “It is the enlightened conscience and educated intelligence of the many that will ultimately crowd back all corruption and anarchy, and harmonize contending factions and dissipate the dangers that threaten our country. Upon this foundation stone laid today will rise an institution to prepare leaders in this great work.”

As graduates, you will leave here today to become the leaders envisioned by our founders. Earning a UNC degree is about more than books and knowledge. It is about nurturing the mind and the heart, seeing potential in the unknown, and preparing to give back to society. If you look at the array of professions — the lives — we prepare students for, many are public service oriented. UNC graduates don’t just make money; they make a difference.

As you continue your journey of lifelong learning, you can be proud to be part of a distinguished group of UNC alumni who are making a difference across the country and around the world.

Best regards,

Kay Norton

Dr. Holly Porter, the director of the English Language Acquisition department in the Cherry Creek School District, has more than 17 years of specialized experience in the field of education. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Spanish: Bilingual/Bicultural Elementary Education, a Master of Arts degree in Special Education: Moderate Needs with an endorsement in Deaf Education, an Educational Specialist degree in educational leadership, and a Doctor of Education degree in Educational Leadership, all from the University of Northern Colorado.

Dr. Porter has served in several Colorado school districts as well as at the Colorado Department of Education. She is an adjunct professor for Regis University, University of Colorado and Adams State University. Dr. Porter recently received recognition as the Language Culture and Equity Director of the Year for the State of Colorado, and the department she supervises received an Excellence Award from the State for high growth and achievement of the students in their program.

Dr. Porter, a fifth generation Coloradan, was born and raised in Aurora, CO. and in her free time loves to enjoy the Colorado outdoors through snowboarding, hiking and Jeeping with her husband and son. She also enjoys scrapbooking, cooking, and gardening.

June 1890
Civic leaders, educators, and citizens from around Colorado gather to lay the cornerstone of UNC’s first building, later named Cranford Hall.

October 1890
The Colorado State Normal School opens before its first building is ready, holding classes in locations around Greeley that included a room over a downtown paint store, a back room at the Baptist church and a courtroom.

James M. Lyons

James M. Lyons is a partner with Lewis Roca Rothgerber LLP who focuses his practice on complex business litigation and domestic and international mediation and arbitration. He has more than 40 years of courtroom and jury trial experience in state and federal courts.

From 1996–2001 Lyons served as Special Advisor to the President and Secretary of State for Economic Initiatives in Ireland and Northern Ireland under President William Jefferson Clinton.

During that period, Lyons also served as United States Observer of the International Fund for Ireland (IFI), where he helped to oversee grants, loans and investments made by the IFI in support of peace and reconciliation.

His integral work in these positions helped to pave the way for the Good Friday Agreement of April 1998, which restored social and political stability in Northern Ireland.

In 2009, Lyons was appointed Ireland’s Honorary Consul in the Denver Metropolitan area by Ireland’s Minister for Foreign Affairs, Mr. Micheál Martin.

He is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the International Academy of Trial Lawyers and the Litigation Counsel of America. He has four times been selected Top Super Lawyer by his Colorado peers.
