Disability Resource Center

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) Office collaborates with the University in its commitment to recognize disability as a valued aspect of diversity and to embrace access to the University of Northern Colorado community as a matter of equity and inclusion. The office provides the University with resources, education, and direct services to create a welcoming and inclusive environment.

Our Services

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) offers many services to students and faculty. Meetings are a collaborative process with the student and DRC staff to determine appropriate accommodations for each semester. Some accommodations that DRC may offer include:

- Sign Language Interpreting Services
- Adaptive Technology
 - Braille, Screen Readers, Enlarged Print
 - Books in Audio or Alternate Format
- Notetaking
- Captioning
- Testing Accommodations
- Other Accommodations
