

Retention rates in preparation programs and in the teaching field (if available),

UNC does not have the student retention rates in the preparation programs or in the teaching field. Therefore, we compared the degree seeking retention rate of the College of Education and Behavior Science (CEBS) to the degree seeking retention rate of the All Colleges (College of Humanities and School Sciences, Monfort College of Business, College of Natural and Health Sciences, College of Performing and Visual Arts, and College of Education and Behavior Science) at UNC. The tables below show the retention rate of percentage of students retained in Program for the CEBS (67.81%) is higher than the retention rate for All Colleges (57.21%) at UNC. In addition, the retention rate of percentage of students retained in the CEBS (69.75%) is also higher than the retention rate for All Colleges (64.17%) at UNC.
