

Asbestos Awareness Training

EHS offers assistance with health and safety information and training for faculty, staff and students. EHS is committed to education as a means to a healthy and safe work environment.

Most training is specific to each job position at the University. Documentation shall be maintained to demonstrate that training was completed. Please contact EHS for additional information or to schedule a training.