3. Approval of the February 24, 2020 Faculty Senate Minutes

   President (Feinstein): No Report
   Provost (Anderson):
   • COVID-19 Update
     o Email sent outlining restrictions on university-related travel based on CDC recommendations.
     o Asking all members of the campus community to reconsider international travel over Spring Break.
   DISCUSSION: The situation is rapidly changing; emergency plans are in place to ensure the continuity of University operations.
   • We are working with Weld County, the City of Greeley, and state entities and using their guidance regarding school operations and public gatherings to inform our decisions.
   • Online learning: We will shift to online learning should the need arise to cancel face-to-face courses. We recognize such a shift is difficult for some types of courses (clinicals, internships, labs, student teaching, etc.) and are committed to finding the best ways to deliver offerings and meet course objectives. We are working with IT regarding necessary bandwidth and storage capacity for a full shift to online learning.
   • Room/board: We will work with students who may not have other housing options outside of their University housing.
   Board of Trustees (Fischer):
   • An emergency BOT meeting will be called this week to consider renegotiating bonds.

*These data are based upon last year’s CUPA figures, and will need to be adjusted as new CUPA data are available; these data also don’t consider potential parity raises.

- The 2% pool provides $750,433 for faculty salary increases.
  - Estimated cost for faculty salary increases using the proposed flat dollar amounts is $710,700.
  - This leaves $39,733 available for parity increases for those faculty at the lowest levels of parity.
  - Promotions will be funded separately.

DISCUSSION:

- Once we have the new CUPA data, we will have a clearer picture of parity and be able to determine who is eligible for parity raises. Associate professors as a group have the lowest parity, and much of the parity increases would likely go to individuals in this group. Next year Salary Equity plans to address promotion dollars for associate professors.
- Where CUPA data may be lacking for some disciplines, Doc All has a large peer group of about 175 schools; Marshall Parks can answer questions faculty may have about peer groups.
- This proposal is intended to provide a good compromise to benefit everyone while also leaving money to address the worse parity issues.
  - Salary Equity will bring the proposal for consideration after Spring Break.
11. Unfinished Business:
   - Catalog language - Course Purge – tabled

12. New Business:
   - ASC Resolution
     - Greene proposes Faculty Senate make a statement denouncing the process by which the decision was made to implement the ASC model.
     - The Faculty Senate reviewed and discussed a statement prepared by Greene.

MOTION: Greene – It is moved to have Faculty Senate endorse the presented statement disapproving of the decision to move to the ASC model and the process by which the decision was made.
SECOND: Rothaus
FRIENDLY AMENDMENT: Leek – Change the language from “voice its dissatisfaction with” to “condemn” the administrative process undertaken.
HAND VOTE: 11 in favor, 9 opposed
FRIENDLY AMENDMENT: Levin – Change the final sentence: “We believe decisions resulting in significant job loss and dramatic changes to how the university supports students and faculty deserve better, now and in the future.” Greene accepted the friendly amendment.

AMENDED MOTION: Resolution to read as follows:
   The Faculty Senate, while understanding the financial challenges facing the University of Northern Colorado, would like to formally condemn the administrative process undertaken when deciding on the Administrative Service Center model. Regardless of the ultimate decision and outcome, the process lacked transparency and appropriate faculty, staff, and student involvement. We believe decisions resulting in significant job loss and dramatic changes to how the university supports students and faculty deserve better, now and in the future.

HAND VOTE: 21 in favor, 0 opposed

13. Comments to the Good of the Order:
14. Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at 5:18pm.
