

Affidavit of Financial Support for International Students

Applicants to the University of Northern Colorado seeking F-1 visas are required to provide proof of financial support in the amount of the estimated cost of attendance and any dependent support for one academic year.

Applicants to the University of Northern Colorado seeking J-1 visas are required to provide proof of financial support in the amount of the estimated cost of attendance and for any dependent support for the duration of their program.

If a bank statement provided for this purpose is not issued in the student's name, each financial sponsor must complete this form to confirm financial support. Financial sponsors must agree to release of information from their financial institution if necessary to verify funds. Please complete this form in English and return it to international.advising@unco.edu.

Annual cost estimates can be found at <https://www.unco.edu/costs/>. These are estimates, based on average enrollment; individual student costs may vary by program, credits, and term. For planning purposes, it is important to understand that costs tend to increase year over year, at a minimum of 3-5%.
