Center for International Education
International Exchange Student Application for Admission
Application Instructions

Thank you for your interest in exchange study at the University of Northern Colorado (UNC). To speed processing of your application, please collect all required materials and submit them in one packet to the Center for International Education (CIE).

Who are International Exchange students? Those international students who remain in the United States for less than one year and are not pursuing a degree at UNC are considered exchange students.

Graduate Students: This application is intended for short-term Exchange students ONLY. If you are a graduate student, please complete the Scholar Application found at www.unco.edu/cie, select Forms in the right-hand corner and scroll to "International Scholar Application & Instructions".

Exchange Student Application Checklist:

Check off each item below as you complete it. An incomplete application may result in the denial of admission.

- Complete and submit the Exchange Student Application for Admission.
Submit a photo-quality copy of the biopage of your passport.
Submit financial documents verifying funding to support the cost of attending UNC.
Submit proof of English Language ability (excluded for native English speakers)
Submit official transcripts, mark sheets, diplomas and certificates from each institution attended. If they are not in English, submit a notarized English translation with each document.
Submit copy of your CURRENT class schedule in English.
Submit Exchange Student Course Request form.

2. Health Insurance - It is a policy of the UNC Board of Trustees that all students who are enrolled for 9 credit hours or more are required to have health insurance. This is to ensure that health care costs will not interfere with your academic goals. The US Government also requires J-1 visa holders to carry health insurance meeting certain requirements. All students with 9 or more semester hours on the Greeley campus are automatically enrolled in the university student health insurance plan and billed along with other university services. If you have other comparable insurance, you must show proof of insurance and submit an online waiver by the 10th day of classes. For more information about UNC insurance policies and the coverage required by the US Government, please go to www.unco.edu/ship and select "International."

3. Proof of English Proficiency - The United States Department of State requires that each exchange visitor have "sufficient knowledge of the English language to undertake the program for which selected, or the sponsoring organization is aware of the language deficiency and has nevertheless indicated willingness to accept the alien" 22 C.F.R. § 41.62(a)(3). In order to meet this federal requirement the CIE will evaluate the English proficiency of all incoming student. If students do not meet UNC English proficiency standards, this may require participation in our Intensive English Program at the expense to the student. UNC asks students to submit the following documentation as initial proof of English proficiency. Submit ONE of the following:

- A TOEFL score of: 70 - Internet-based OR 520 - Paper-Based
- An IELTS score of 6 or greater
- A PTE score of 54 or greater
- Proof of study in English for at least 5 consecutive years
- Completion of a degree at a US institution within the last 2 years
- Letter from university official indicating adequate English.

Additionally for Graduate Students:

- Submit transcripts of your university studies, showing undergraduate and graduate courses

4. Immunization – Proof of all immunizations since birth. At minimum 2 doses of measles, mumps and rubella after the age of 1 at least 1 month apart are required. For more details please visit <http://www.unco.edu/student-health-center/>.

5. Exchange Course Request – Please select 10 classes you would like to take at UNC. You will not enroll in all of them. This will help us make arrangements so that you can register for classes.

6. Transcript – Please attach an official transcript that lists all courses that you have taken at your home university and the grade received in each course. Please note: that this document must either be in English or be accompanied by an English translation.

7. Current Schedule – Please include a copy of your current course schedule. This will help with class placement.

8. Copy of passport – Please provide a photo quality copy of your passport bio page.
