

RESEARCHER WORKSHOP SERIES 2017-2018

*Enhance your scholarship at the University Libraries

Open Education Resources: What's in it for You

Oct 26, 2017 | 2:00pm - 4:00pm

Learn to incorporate OER such as government data sets, open licensed textbooks, open access journals, and more into your research and teaching.
Presenters: Stan Trembach and Mark Anderson

Showcase Your Impact as an Author/Creator & Tell Your Research Story

Nov 9, 2017 | 9:30am - 11:00am

Determine and increase the reach of your scholarly work by becoming more familiar with metrics that measure impact and related tools and strategies.
Presenters: Jen Mayer and Nicole Webber

Copyright & Fair Use for Scholars

Feb 27, 2018 | 4:00pm - 5:30pm

Demystify the legalese of U.S. copyright law and clarify the rights and responsibilities of copyright owners and users—especially as it applies to your roles as researcher, teacher, and author.
Presenter: Wendy Highby

Preparing to Publish: Find the Best Journal & Know Your Rights as an Author

Apr 10, 2018 | 2:00pm - 3:30pm

Learn about the manuscript submission process, tools that assist in finding the right journal for your scholarship, tips for avoiding predatory publishers, and your rights as an author.
Presenter: Stephanie Wiegand

Workshops are open to all and take place in Michener Room 303
Please register at unco.libcal.com/calendar/events

University Libraries