

UNC Honors Program

FIRST YEAR Course Plan FALL 2020

Required (Required in 1st semester)

Enroll in one section of HON101 in Fall2020.

- ☐ HON 101- Honors Critical Thinking- 1 credit
MW 11:15 am -12:05 pm CRN: 12059 Shawn Montano
MW 12:20 pm-1:10 pm CRN: 12061 Shawn Montano
MW 1:25 pm -2:15 pm CRN: 12060 Patricia Jolly

Honors Introduction to Critical Thinking: An introductory seminar for honors students, emphasizing critical and creative thinking, perspective taking, inquiry, and intercultural competencies through in depth discussions on contemporary issues, engaged learning opportunities, and community-based projects.

Required (Recommended 1st semester)

Enroll in EITHER LIB151 OR UNIV101.

- ☐ *LIB151- Research Skills (Honors Only)- 1 credit (Only 8 weeks long)
MWF 2:30-3:20pm CRN: 11192 Rachel Dineen

Students will gain active learning experience in managing information in a dynamic research environment. Includes skills in identifying, retrieving, organizing, and evaluating information necessary for academic research and scholarly writing.

OR

- ☐ UNIV101-117 (Honors Only Section)- 3 credits.
TR 9:30-10:45 am CRN: 15615 Alexis Hauk

The purpose of this course is to help students successfully navigate the challenges and meet the expectations of being an undergraduate student scholar at a research university. This course will introduce theoretical models and the application of these models to help build the foundation for continued intellectual, personal, and professional growth and development.

The Following Majors have alternate LIB courses: Audiology and Speech-Language Sciences (LIB170), History (LIB180), Criminal Justice (LIB160). Honors Students should enroll in their alternate course in lieu of LIB151 AND are encouraged to take the UNIV101 honors course.*

Honors Elective Course (if you have room in your schedule)

- MIND 292 – Ideas in Conflict- 3 credits (LAC Elective)
W, 2:30–5:30pm CRN 11677 Patricia Jolly

This course looks at ideas that shaped key events in the 20th and 21st century beginning with a close look at Gandhi and civil resistance. Other topics look at how colonialism, imperialism, isolationism, globalization, communism, capitalism, socialism and corporatism have woven through the last 100 years and how each sculpts the culture and events we are living in.

REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

- You will be allowed to register after you receive advising from your department/College area, generally during New Student Orientation.
- Log onto your URSA Account and go to the “Student” Tab
- Under the “Registration and Grades” click on “Register, Add, or Drop/Withdraw Classes”
- The best and EASIEST option is to enter CRN’s manually (See above)

If you have questions email us at honors@unco.edu

Honors Program Mandatory Fall Retreat Information

Discover your Honors Program

- Meet other new honors students, faculty/staff, peer mentors, and your HON101 TA's.
- Find out what it means to be in Honors at UNC.
- Learn about Honors Program upcoming events, activities, and opportunities.
- Have fun—games and activities

Saturday, August 22nd, 2020

- Assuming in person is allowed:
 - Meet at 8:30 am on Saturday, August 22nd
 - University Center Ballrooms
 - We will return to campus around 2:45 pm on Saturday, August 22nd
 - Transportation will be provided to downtown Greeley in UNC vans
 - Light breakfast snacks and lunch will be provided
- If smaller groups are required, we will hold 2 smaller sessions, each at around 3 hours, giving options on Friday Aug. 21 and Saturday Aug. 22.
- If retreat must be online, we will send information for the online sessions.
- We may offer an alternate online session even if in person retreat is possible.

What to Bring:

- ☐ Spending money for the local Farmer's Market
- ☐ Walking shoes
- ☐ Comfortable clothing—bring layers, Colorado weather is unpredictable
- ☐ Water bottle
- ☐ Camera or Smart phone with camera

Please email us at honors@unco.edu if you have any dietary restrictions or needs for accessibility