Paper given at the Rocky Mountain National Park workshop for Developing Strategies for Managing Fire Effects on Cultural Resources at RMNP, November 18 and 19, 2009, Estes Park, CO, Stanley Hotel.

Weights of Evidence Modeling in Archeology, Rocky Mountain National Park. Paper given at a paper session entitled "GIS Used for Analyzing Prehistoric Religious Site Locations" at the 29th Annual ESRI International User Conference, San Diego, CA, July 13-17, 2009. Second co-author with Dr. David Diggs, UNC Geography Program.

The Role of Academic Institutions in Promoting Faculty and Student Civic Engagement: Case Studies at the University of Northern Colorado. Paper given at the 2008 International Conference on Service-Learning and Community Engagement, October 25-29, 2008. New Orleans, LA.

Informing Federal Lands Managers and Educating the Public on Past, Present and Future Climate Change through Archaeology and Paleoclimate Studies: complimentary research programs on National Park Service and Bureau of Land Management Lands. Paper presented in a Symposium Session titled What's New at the Intersection of Natural and Cultural Research in the Rocky Mountains?, chaired by Dr. Robert Brunswig at the CESU-Rocky Mountain Region Science Day Symposium, October 16, 2008. Estes Park, CO.

The Cathedral Butte Site: a Late Paleoindian Assemblage from North West Colorado. Second co-author with Dr. Frederic Sellet (University of Northern Colorado), Dr. James Mayer (Southern Methodist University), and Robyn Watkins Morris (Bureau of Land Management, Colorado). Paper given at the 66th Annual Plains Anthropological Conference, October 1-4, 2008. Laramie, WY.

Native American Lives and Sacred Landscapes in Rocky Mountain National Park. Invited paper given at the 2008 Rocky Mountain National Park Research and Resources Conference, Rocky Mountain National Park Headquarters, Estes Park, Colorado, April 8, 2008. First co-author with Dr. David Diggs, UNC Geography Program.

GIS Modeling Colorado Paleoindian Settlement and Landscape Use Patterns. Paper delivered at the 2008 Annual Meeting of the Society for American Archaeology in a symposium titled "Paleoindian Research Frontiers in North America's Plains and Western Mountains", chaired by Dr. Robert Brunswig. Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, March 26-30, 2008.

Modeling Ten Millennia of Seasonal Transhumance and Subsistence in Colorado's Prehistoric Rockies. Paper delivered at the 40th Annual Chacmool Conference. The conference theme was 'The Archaeology of Foodways', November 10-12, 2007. Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Parsing a Montane Park Landscape for Clues to Paleoindian Prehistoric Adaptations: Analytical Frameworks for the UNC North Park Cultural Landscapes Project. First Co-author with Dr. Frederic Sellet (UNC Anthropology Program). Paper given at the 8th Biennial Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, October 25-28, 2007. Jackson Hole, Wyoming. (First co-author with Dr. Frederic Sellet-UNC Anthropology Program)

Weights of Evidence Modeling of Native American Sacred Sites in Rocky Mountain National Park. Paper delivered at the 2007 Association of American Geographers, Rocky Mountain Division, Conference. September 28-29, 2007. Denver, Colorado. Third co-author with Dr. David Diggs (UNC Geography Program) and Christine Chady (Anthropology Department, University of Wyoming).

From Mammoths to Mountains: Mining Colorado's Paleoindian Past. Invited lecture presented at the Utah State University Department of Sociology, Social Work, and Anthropology's Spring Faculty and Student "Brown Bag" Lecture Series, April 20, 2007. Logan, Utah.

A High-Resolution Paleotemperature Record from La Poudre Pass, Rocky Mountain National Park, USA. Second co-author with James Doerner, UNC Geography Program. Poster paper presented at the annual meeting of the Association of American Geographers, April 17-21, 2007. San Francisco, California.

Prehistoric and Historic Cultural Landscape Studies by the University of Northern Colorado in Rocky Mountain National Park. Second co-author with Dr. Sally McBeth, UNC Anthropology Program. Invited lecture presented at the University of Wyoming Department of Anthropology's Seminar Series, March 23, 2007. Laramie, Wyoming.

Stories from the Cultural Borderlands: Supporting Community Integration through Exploration of Immigrant Histories. Second co-author with Dr. Christine Marston, UNC Economics Program. Paper presentation at the 2007 UNC Rosenberry Writer's Conference, February 28, 2007. Greeley, Colorado.

Re-Enfranchising Native Peoples in the Southern Rocky Mountains: Integrated Contributions of Archaeological and Ethnographic Studies on Federal Lands. Paper delivered as part of a paper session entitled Critical Engagements: Archaeology and Stakeholders Speak..., chaired by Dr. Brian Kooyman at the 39th Annual Chacmool Conference. The conference theme was 'Decolonizing Archaeology: Archaeology and the Post-Colonial Critique', November 11-13, 2006. Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Modeling Native American Sacred Sites in Rocky Mountain National Park. Co-authored with David Diggs, UNC Geography Program. Invited Paper presented at a National Parks Theme Session entitled "Modeling and Managing Cultural Resources in National Parks." 2006 ESRI International User Conference, August 5-8, 2006. San Diego, California.

Clovis Hunting Bands and Late Pleistocene Deglaciation of High Mountain Tundra and Passes in Rocky Mountain National Park. Co-authored with James Doerner, UNC Geography Program. Invited paper given at the Rocky Mountain National Park Research Conference, April 4-5, 2006, Estes Park, Colorado.

The University of Northern Colorado and its Role in Support of the National Park Service

Mission Through the Rocky Mountain CESU. Invited presentation to Rocky Mountain Region National Park Managers at the National Park Service's Rocky Mountain Cluster Resource Meeting, February 27-28, 2006, Denver, Colorado.

The Use of Integrated Survey-Grade GPS and Computer Mapping Technologies to the Documentation and Analysis of Archaeological Sites and Landscapes in Colorado Mountain Terrains. Paper given at the Chacmool Archaeological Conference, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada, November 10-13, 2005, in a paper session entitled "Remote Sensing: a New Tool Box for the Field Archaeologist", chaired by Jean Michel Maillol. The conference theme was "Tools of the Trade: Methods, Techniques, and Innovative Approaches in Archaeology".

Modeling Native American Sacred-Mundane Landscapes: Hypothetical Frames of Reference from Ethnoarcheological Studies in North Central Colorado's Rocky Mountains. Paper delivered as part of an organized session entitled Historic Archaeology and Ethnohistory in the Rocky Mountains at the 2005 Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, Park City, Utah. September 15-18, 2005.

Late Pleistocene-Early Holocene Paleoclimate and Archaeology of a High Altitude Mountain Pass in Rocky Mountain National Park, Colorado. Second co-author with Dr. James Doerner, UNC Department of Geography. Paper delivered as part of an organized session entitled So High, So Early: Advances in Rocky Mountain Paleoindian Archaeology at the 2005 Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, Park City, Utah. September 15-18, 2005.

Material Sourcing Studies of Lithic Assemblages in Rocky Mountain National Park: Preliminary Results of the UNC/RMNP Systemwide Archeological Inventory Program. (second co-author with Robert Wunderlich). Paper given at the 2003 Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, Estes Park, Colorado, September 18-20, 2003.

Hunting Systems and Seasonal Migratory Patterns through Time in Rocky Mountain National Park. Paper given at the 2003 Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, Estes Park, Colorado, September 18-20, 2003.

Paleoindian Colonization of Colorado's Southern Rockies: new evidence from Rocky Mountain National Park and adjacent areas. Paper given at the 2003 Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, Estes Park, Colorado, September 18-20, 2003

Earliest Human Occupation of RMNP: Newest Findings of the UNC/RMNP Archeological Inventory Program. Invited paper given at the 2003 Rocky Mountain National Park

Research and Resources Day, Continental Divide Research & Learning Center, Estes Park, Colorado, June 7, 2003.

The End of One World and the Beginning of Another: Cultural and Environmental Landscape Changes at the Pleistocene-Holocene Boundary in France's Late Upper Paleolithic Pyrenees and Colorado's Paleoindian Rockies. Invited paper given at the Chacmool Archaeological Conference, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada, November 13-17, 2002. The conference theme was: "Apocalypse Then and Now: Archaeology and World's Ends", chaired by Dr. Larry Steinbrenner and Meaghan Peuramaki-Brown (Department of Archaeology, University of Calgary).

Vegetation and Climate Change in Rocky Mountain National Park: Pollen Evidence from Lawn Lake Fen. Second co-author with Dr. James Doerner. Invited paper given at the Rocky Mountain National Park Research Conference, April 9-11, 2002, Estes Park, Colorado.

Earliest Human Occupation of Rocky Mountain National Park: New Findings of the UNC/RMNP Archeological Inventory Project. Invited paper given at the Rocky Mountain National Park Research Conference, April 9-11, 2002, Estes Park, Colorado.

Mountain Paleoindian Subsistence Strategies, Early "Game Drives", and Environmental Change: New Views from Rocky Mountain National Park and Beyond. Paper given at the 2002 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, March 20-24, 2002 as part of an Symposium entitled: "Recent Research in the Late Paleoindian Period", chaired by Dr. Robert Brunswig. Denver, Colorado.

Vegetation and Climate Change in Rocky Mountain National Park: Pollen Evidence from Lawn Lake Fen. Paper presented at the Annual Association of American Geographers Conference, March 19-22, 2002, in a Symposium entitled "Forest Dynamics and Ecological Restoration", second co-author with Dr. James Doerner and William Sanborn, chaired by John A. Kupfer. San Diego, California.

The Lawn Lake Site (5LR318): New Evidence for High Altitude Late Paleoindian Adaptations and Paleolandscapes of Colorado's Southern Rockies in the Early Holocene. Paper presented at the 5th Biennial Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, September 21-22, 2001, in a symposium entitled "Pleistocene Holocene Transition in the Rockies: Synthesis and Current Research", first co-author with Dr. James Doerner, co-chaired by Marcel Kornfeld and David Madsen. Waterton, Alberta.

Shamans, Spirit Power, and Cultural Landscapes in Mountain Territories. Paper given at the 5th Biennial Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, September 21-22, 2001, in a symposium entitled "First Nations, Roots, Routes and the Rocky Mountain Corridors", first co-author with Louise Elinoff and Tom Lux, chaired by Marty Magne. Waterton, Alberta.

High Altitude Cultural Landscapes and Hunting Systems at the Pleistocene-Holocene Boundary: Comparison of the late Upper Paleolithic Pyrenees and the Paleoindian Rocky Mountains. Paper presented at the 5th Biennial Rocky Mountain Anthropological Conference, September 21-22, 2001, in a symposium entitled "Hunting the High Country: Precontact Rocky Mountain Alpine Hunting Patterns", co-chaired by Brian Vivian and Bill Butler. Waterton, Alberta.

Reconstructing Natural Landscapes and Paleoclimates in Rocky Mountain National Park. Co-authored (with Dr. Jim Doerner and Will Sanborn, UNC). Paper given at the 2001 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, New Orleans, Louisiana, April 18-22, 2001 as part of an Symposium entitled: "Rocky Mountain National Park Archeology: Status Report of an on-going Five-Year Survey and Testing Program."

Earliest Human Occupations in the Colorado Front Range: Evidence from the UNC/RMNP Inventory Program. Paper given at the 2001 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, New Orleans, Louisiana, April 18-22, 2001 as part of an Symposium entitled: "Rocky Mountain National Park Archeology: Status Report of an on-going Five-Year Survey and Testing Program."

Archaeological Tourism and the Archaeological Profession: Preparing for Change. Paper given at the 2001 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, New Orleans, Louisiana, April 18-22, 2001 as part of an SAA Forum entitled: "The Integration of 'Heritage' Tourism into Archaeology: Its Present and Future in the Profession."

Holocene Environmental Change in Rocky Mountain National Park. Paper given at the Association of American Geographers, New York City, NY, February 27-March 3, 2001. Second co-author with Dr. Jim Doerner (UNC Geography Department) and Chad Lane (University of Denver Geography Department).

Art and Cultural Landscapes in the Terminal Ice Age and Early Holocene: Contrasts and Parallels in Europe's Pyrenees and America's Southern Rockies. Invited paper given at the Chacmool Archaeological Conference, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada, November 8-12, 2000 as part of a conference entitled: "Art for Archaeology's Sake: Material Culture and Style Across the Disciplines, chaired by Dr. Mark Zender and Calla McNamee (Department of Archaeology, University of Calgary).

Anatomy of a High Altitude Game Drive: Landscape Modeling of 5LR15 in Rocky Mountain

National Park. Paper given at the 2000 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, Philadelphia, PA, April 6-9, 2000.

Mountain-Lowland Adaptations in the Terminal Pleistocene" France's Pyrenees-Atlantique and Colorado's Southern Rocky Mountain Regions. Paper given at the 1999 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, Chicago, IL, March 24-28, 1999 as part of a symposium entitled: "Paleoindian Studies".

Late Pleistocene/Early Holocene Landscapes and Paleoindian Economic Systems in Colorado's Southern Rocky Mountains. Invited paper given at the Chacmool Archaeological Conference, University of Calgary, Calgary, Canada, November 13-14, 1998 as part of a symposium entitled: "Untrampled Ground-Untrammelled Views: Human Exploitation of and Settlement Patterns on 'New' Landscapes", chaired by Dr. Andrea Freeman (Department of Archaeology, University of Calgary).

High Altitude Paleoindian Landscape Use and Environmental Change in Late Glacial and Early Holocene Times in Colorado's Rocky Mountains. Invited paper given at the 1998 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, Seattle, WA, March 25-29, 1998 as part of a symposium entitled: "Cresting the Continent: Paleoindian Use of the Rocky Mountains from Canada to Colorado", chaired by Bonnie Pitblado (Department of Anthropology, University of Arizona).

Applications of Global Positioning Systems and Landscape Archaeology in the Twenty-First Century: Preliminary Results of UNC's South Platte Project. Paper given at the 55th Annual Plains Anthropological Society Conference, Boulder, CO, November 19-22, 1997.

Merging Theory and Archaeological Databases in the Twenty-First Century: Lessons from the UNC South Platte Archaeological Project. Invited Paper given at the 1997 Conference of the Colorado Archaeological Society, Denver, CO, October 11, 1997, as part of a symposium entitled "Plains and Plains-Mountain Transitions from Paleo to Historic", chaired by Dr. Richard Marlar (Denver VA Medical Center).

High-Resolution Global Positioning Systems and Their Application in Landscape Archaeology Model Building. Paper given at the 1997 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, Nashville, TN, April 2-6, 1997, as part of a symposium entitled "Ancient Landscape Reconstruction: New Approaches and Technologies", Co-chaired by Dr. Robert H. Brunswig, Jr. (University of Northern Colorado) and Dr. Lawrence Conyers (University of Denver).

Into the Reflecting Pool: a Vision of the Future of Archaeology in Colorado's South Platte

Valley. Invited Paper given at the Plenary Paper Session entitled: "The Archaeology of Colorado's Waterways", at the 1997 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Golden, Colorado, March 15-16, 1997.

Prehistoric Utilization of Patch Environments and Culture Change in Colorado's Central High Plains. Invited Paper given at the 54th Annual Plains Anthropological Society Conference, Iowa City, Iowa. October 31-November 3, 1996, as part of a symposium entitled "Islands in the Plains", Co-chaired by Marcel Kornfeld (University of Wyoming) and Alan J. Osborn (University of Nebraska).

Expert Panelist Discussant on Papers from the Symposium titled "Should Kids Dig? The Ethics of Children Digging in Real or Sand Box Sites." 1996 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, New Orleans, LA, April 10-14, 1996.

Geographic Information System Research Design and Regional Landscape Analysis on the Colorado High Plains. Paper given in a Symposium on Western United States Method and Theory at the 1996 National Conference of the Society for American Archaeology, New Orleans, LA, April 10-14, 1996.

A Brave New World: Research Design and Technology in Colorado's Archaeology of the Next Quarter Century. Invited Paper given at the Plenary Paper Session on The Past, Present and Future of Colorado Archaeology, 1996 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Dolores, Colorado, March 14-15, 1996.

Site Formation and Use Area Analysis Studies at Three O'Clock Shelter: West Stoneham Archaeological District, Northeastern Colorado. Paper given at the 53rd Annual Plains Anthropological Society Conference, Laramie, WY. October 18-22, 1995.

Kersey and Kuner Terrace Investigations at the Dent and Bernhardt Sites, Colorado. Paper given at the Annual Society for American Archaeology Conference, in a Symposium on Paleoindian Archaeology and Geoarchaeology of the Central High Plains and Rocky Mountains, Minneapolis, MN. May 5, 1995. (Third co-author with C. Vance Haynes, University of Arizona; Michael McFaul, Laramie Soils Service, Inc., and Kenneth D. Hopkins, University of Northern Colorado).

Late Paleoindian Culture Dynamics and Environmental Change in the Central High Plains and Rocky Mountains. Paper given at the Annual Society for American Archaeology Conference, in a Symposium on Paleoindian Archaeology and Geoarchaeology of the Central High Plains and Rocky Mountains, Minneapolis, MN. May 5, 1995. (Second co-author with Bonnie Pitblado, University of Arizona).

The Dent Mammoth Site: Directions in Current Research. Paper given at the Annual Society for American Archaeology Conference, in a Symposium on Paleoindian Archaeology and Geoarchaeology of the Central High Plains and Rocky Mountains, Minneapolis, MN. May 6, 1995.

Terminal Paleoindian and Early Archaic Culture Dynamics and Processes of Northeastern Colorado's High Plains and Rocky Mountains. Paper given as part of the Symposium on Paleoindian and Archaic Adaptation in Transitional Environments at the 1994 Society for American Archaeology's Annual Conference. Anaheim, California. April 20-24, 1994.

The Windfalls and Pitfalls of Re-investigating Archaeological Sites: Case Studies of the Clovis Period Dent Mammoth and Plains Woodland Hatch Sites. Paper given at the 50th Plains Anthropological Society Conference held at Lincoln, Nebraska, on November 11-14, 1992.

Dismal River Apache Culture Dynamics of the Protohistoric and Early Historic High Plains Region. Paper given at the 49th High Plains Conference held at Lawrence, Kansas, on November 13-16, 1991.

Plains Woodland Mortuary Practices and Secondary Bundle Burials: The Ehrlich Site of Northeastern Colorado's High Plains. Co-author with James Wanner, UNC. Paper given at the 49th Plains Anthropological Society Conference held at Lawrence, Kansas on November 13-16, 1991.

Recent Advances in Anasazi Archaeology of the Pine and Piedra River Basins and Uplands of Southwest Colorado. Paper given at the 1991 Anasazi Symposium held at Mesa Verde National Park, Colorado, October 3-5, 1991.

Non-Juried/Open

Past and Present History of Dearfield Heritage Research and Emerging Plans, including this symposium, for New Research and Historic Structures Rehabilitation and Protection. Paper presented at the 2018 Dearfield Dream Futures Planning Symposium, May 19, 2018. University of Northern Colorado, Greeley.

Advancing the Historical and Archaeological Record of Dearfield Colony's Past: A Vision for Future Research and Publication Agendas. Paper presented at the 2017 Dearfield Conference & Symposium, April 29, 2017. University of Northern Colorado, Greeley.

Uncovering Dearfield's Past: the Intersection of Archaeology and Archival Newspaper Sources. Paper presented at the Fourth Dearfield Annual Conference, March 26, 2016, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley.

Social Life and Economic Necessity: the Role and Importance of Recreation and Leisure in the Dearfield Colony. Paper presented at the Fourth Dearfield Annual Conference, March 26, 2016, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley.

GIS and Archaeological Modeling a 10,000 Year-Old Mountain Valley Game Drive System in North Park, Colorado. Paper given at the 2016 Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Annual Meeting, Salida, Colorado, March 17-20, 2016.

Valley View: Early Ceramic/Plains Woodland Fall-Winter Residence in Colorado's Northern Front Range Foothills. Paper given at the 2015 Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Annual Meeting, Denver, Colorado, March 12-14, 2015.

Two Colonies or One? Geography and Politics in the Early Social and Economic Evolution of Dearfield Colony. Paper presented at the Third Dearfield Annual Conference, March 7, 2015, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley. (Second co-author with Dr. George Junne, UNC Africana Studies Program).

The Background and Role of African-American Recreation and Leisure in Dearfield Colony History. Paper presented at the Third Dearfield Annual Conference, March 7, 2015, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley.

Update on the finds from the Alonzo Allen Cabin Site 2013. Third co-author with Heidi Short (University of Northern Colorado) and Edie Deweese (Allenspark Historic Society). Paper given at the 2013 Colorado Archaeological Society Annual Meeting, Loveland, Colorado, October 2-6, 2013.

Dearfield: The African-American Community. City of Greeley Museums History Brown Bag Lecture. Greeley, Colorado, August 22, 2013.

Early Stage Documentation of a Bison and Pronghorn Game Drive System on Buffalo Ridge, North Park Valley, Colorado Rocky Mountains. Paper given at the 2013 Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Annual Meeting, Denver, Colorado, March 15-17, 2013.

UNC's North Park Cultural Landscape Project: A Case Study in Federal Agency-Community-

Native American-University Collaboration in Heritage Research, Preservation, and Stewardship Management. Presentation and round-table at the University of Northern Colorado's 6th Engaged Scholarship Symposium, November 13th, 2012. Greeley, Colorado.

Early Phase Investigations of a Bison Drive and Jump and Associated Pronghorn Drives on Buffalo Ridge, North Park, Colorado. Paper given at the 2012 Colorado Archaeological Society Annual Meeting, Boulder, Colorado, October 6, 2012.

Exploratory Excavations of the 19th Century Alonzo Allen Cabin Site (2012), Allenspark, Colorado. Paper given at the 2012 Colorado Archaeological Society Annual Meeting, Boulder, Colorado, October 6, 2012. First co-author with Edie DeWeese and Kris Holien.

New Insights and Understanding of the early 20th Century Dearfield Colony: 2012 University of Northern Colorado Research Results. Professional Presentation to the Greeley Historical Commission, Greeley, Colorado, August 27, 2012.

Partners, Community, Public Education, and Public Engagement in the Dearfield Dream Project. Paper given at the First Annual Dearfield Dream Conference, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, Colorado, February 18, 2012.

Dearfield Archaeology: Results of the 2011 Field Season. First co-author with Petra Kordischova and Noel Dijkstra. Paper given at the First Annual Dearfield Dream Conference, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, Colorado, February 18, 2012.

Archaeological Research at Dearfield: an Early 20th Century African-American Agricultural Colony in Weld County, Colorado. First co-author with Andrew Creekmore and Noel Dijkstra, Department of Anthropology, UNC. Paper given at the 2011 Colorado Archaeological Society Annual Meeting, Boulder, Colorado, October 14, 2011.

Historical Archaeology in Weld County and Greeley: UNC Summer Research at the Dearfield and Meeker Home Sites, 2011. Professional Presentation to the Greeley Historical Commission, Greeley, Colorado, June 13, 2011.

The Role of Geology and Geography in Native American Spiritual Lives: Observations from the UNC Sacred Landscapes Project. Presentation to the University of Northern Colorado Earth Sciences Departmental Seminar, February 18, 2011. Greeley.

UNC and the City of Greeley: Building Civically Engaged Foundations for a Global Community. Co-presented with Maria Sanchez, Christine Marston, and Barbara Whinery. Panel Session at the UNC 2009 Diversity in Education Colloquium, March 31, 2009. Greeley.

Ten Thousand Years of North Park Archaeology: Current Status of UNC's North Park Cultural Landscapes Project. First co-author with Frederic Sellet, UNC Anthropology Program. Paper given at the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Annual Conference, Fort Collins, Colorado. April 11-12, 2008.

Mountain Basin Hunting Systems and Strategies: Evidence from UNC's North Park Cultural Landscapes Project. First co-author with Frederic Sellet, UNC Anthropology Program. Paper given at the 2007 Colorado Archaeological Society Annual Meeting, Aurora, Colorado, September 29-30, 2007.

From Mammoths to Mountains: Colorado's Earliest Native American Colonists. UNC Libraries Fall Authors Lecture, September 20, 2006. Greeley, Colorado, University of Northern Colorado.

High Altitude Hunters of the Southern Rockies during the Pleistocene/Holocene Transition: Evidence from UNC's Archeological Inventory Program in Rocky Mountain National Park. Paper given at the General Research Paper Session at the 2001 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, La Junta, Colorado, March 1-4, 2001.

Rocky Mountain Survey Strategies: Technological and Research Design Innovations from UNC Field Research. Paper given at the General Research Paper Session at the 2000 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Denver, Colorado, March 17-18, 2000.

The Philosophy and Reality of Involving Undergraduates in Professional Research Activities: a Historical Perspective on the UNC Experience. Paper delivered at the 1999 Annual Meeting of the High Plains Society for Applied Anthropology, Estes Park, CO, April 16-18, 1999.

University of Northern Colorado Archaeological Inventories in Rocky Mountain National Park: Results of the First Field Season. Paper given at the General Research Paper Session at the 1999 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Glenwood Springs, Colorado, March 5-6, 1999.

The Use of Mapping Grade Global Positioning Systems and Computer Mapping and Geographic Information Systems Software in Archaeological Research: Cases Studies in Diverse Colorado Terrains. Paper given at the General Research Paper Session at the 1999 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Glenwood Springs, Colorado, March 5-6, 1999.

Seasonal Migrations of Prehistoric Hunter-Gatherers in the Southern Rocky Mountains: Evidence from Big Rock Shelter, Estes Park, Colorado. Paper given at the General Research Paper Session at the 1998 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Golden, Colorado, March 13-14, 1998.

New Perspectives on Paleoenvironmental Change in Northeastern Colorado's South Platte Valley. Paper given at the General Research Paper Session at the 1997 Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Golden, Colorado, March 15-16, 1997.

Paleoenvironmental Analysis and Archaeology in Northeastern Colorado: A Historical Review and Future Prospectus. Paper given at the Annual Meeting of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, March 25, 1995. Fort Collins, CO.

Test Excavations at Rattlesnake Shelter: a Multi-Component Site in the Pawnee National Grassland of Northeastern Colorado. Paper given at the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Annual Conference. Montrose, Colorado. March 3-4, 1994.

The Dent Mammoth Site: an Update on Recent Research. Paper given at the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Annual Conference. Montrose, Colorado. March 3-4, 1994.

Archaeological Research in the Pawnee National Grassland: A Cooperative Partnership between the U.S. Forest Service and the University of Northern Colorado. Poster Paper given at Joint Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists/Utah Professional Archaeologists Council Conference, April 2-3, 1993. Greeley, Colorado. Joint co-author with John Slay and Bud Phillips, Arapaho-Roosevelt National Forest.

Emerging Early Archaic Occupation Patterns in Colorado's Front Range and Eastern Plains. Paper given at Joint Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists/Utah Professional Archaeologists Council Conference, April 2-3, 1993. Greeley, Colorado.

Archaeology as a Foundation for a Multicultural World: Conceptual Issues and Content in Western Processual vs. Non-Western, Nativist, Post-Processual Perspectives in Archaeological Research. Paper given at the Conference on Multiculturalism in the 21st Century, Sept. 24-26, 1992. University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, Colorado.

Geoarchaeology and Death Event Reconstruction at the Dent Clovis Site. Paper given at Joint Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists/Utah Professional Archaeologists Council Conference, March 26-27, 1992. Grand Junction, Colorado.

Responsibility and Role of Higher Education Institutions in Archaeology Education: New Directions for the 21st Century. Paper given at Joint Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists/Utah Professional Archaeologists Council Conference, March 26-27, 1992. Grand Junction, Colorado.

Apachean Ceramics in Colorado: Current Data and New Directions. Paper delivered to the 1991 Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists Conference, March 9, 1991. Boulder, Colorado, University of Colorado.

New Perspectives on the Plains Woodland Period in Northeastern Colorado: Recent Excavations at the Valley View Site. Paper given to the Annual Conference of the Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists, Delores, Colorado, March 9, 1990.

Leading-Edge Science Education: Lessons from UNC's Frontiers of Science Institute. Paper given at the Annual Colorado Science Convention, February 24, 1989, University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, Colorado.

New Data on the Colorado Front Range Foothill's Upper Republican Culture: UNC Excavations at Echo Cave. Paper given at the 1988 Colorado Archaeological Society Annual Conference. Fort Collins, Colorado.

FUNDED PROJECTS:

Total Research Grant Funding to Date: $1,750,194.
55 external grants; 21 internal (UNC) grants.

Colorado State Historical Fund, Archaeology Mini-Grant. Project Title: Archaeological Investigations of Dearfield Site. SHF Grant-$10,944. Grant Total (with $1,000 UNC Match). $11,944, 2019-2021.

UNC Cash Matches to a Colorado State Historical Fund, Archaeology Mini-Grant. Project Title: Archaeological Investigations of Dearfield Site. Total-$1,000; $500-UNC College of Humanities & Social Sciences; $500-UNC Office of Undergraduate Research, 2019-2021.

Colorado State Historical Fund, Development & Acquisitions Grant. Project Title: Phase 2 Implementation of the NRHP-designated African-American Dearfield Townsite Preservation Plan: Building Stabilization and Securitization, Grant Total (with 25% Cash Match by Colorado State University, and $3,000 cash contribution by Colorado Preservation, Inc.), $42,995, 2019-2021.

Bureau of Land Management, Kremmling Field Office. 5-Year Assistance Agreement. Project title: BLM -CO-North Park Ute Trail Cultural Landscapes Study Project. 2016-2020. CESU. Annual grants for 5 years for $15,000 per year for years 1-5 for a total of $75,000. Inception Year: 2016. Award years completed and funded to date: 2016-202.

Programs/Laboratories/Institutes Developed:

Developed, implemented, and directed a university Center for Engaged Research and Civic Action, University of Northern Colorado, 2008-2013. The center was discontinued by the university in April 2013.

Developed and implemented two research institutes, the Heritage Resources Management and Education Institute (HRMEI) and the Community Development and Outreach Institute (CDOI), along with a supporting research office based in the School of Social Sciences. 2006-2007.

High technology multi-media curricula development. Project to design and teach anthropology courses based on the integrated use of an array of multi-media technology, including presentation software, CD-ROM instructional programs, video presentations, digital overheads and in and out-of-class use of instructional Internet resources. To date, seven existing UNC Anthropology courses have been redesigned for multi-media based instruction delivery. Re-designed and obtained funding for upgrading the Anthropology

Laboratory/Classroom into a full multi-media capable teaching facility.

Worked as part of Anthropology Department Faculty team to develop new major and minor emphases in the UNC Anthropology Program.

Development, with Dr. James Doerner (UNC Geography Department), of the UNC Archaeology and Paleoenvironmental Research Laboratory, 2004-present. Laboratory capabilities included facilities for complete archaeological lab studies in lithic technologies (artifact typological identification, tool use-wear analysis, material sourcing...), pottery analysis, computer-based graphics systems for artifact documentation (high resolution digital cameras and scanners), and assorted computer-based archaeological mapping systems (mapping grade Global Positioning System instruments, Surfer mapping software, ArcView Geographic Information System software). Paleoenvironmental capabilities include sediment core retrieval and analysis lab stations for pollen analysis, sediment characterization (bulk density, magnetic susceptibility, sediment grain analysis, pH, chemical composition, and organic content), and tree-ring (dendro) analysis for annual climate variation. The tree-ring analysis lab component also allows dendrochronological (dating) analysis used in both archaeological and paleoenvironmental studies.

Worked with other UNC Anthropology Faculty in development of a new revised major in Anthropology with an interdisciplinary emphasis, instituted in the fall of 2005.

Worked with other UNC Anthropology Faculty in developing a new major in interdisciplinary Anthropology instituted in the fall of 2000.
