

Contact Information

Email: Katherine.Johnson@unco.edu

Phone: (970) 351-2160

Office: Candelaria 2200e

Mailing Address:

University of Northern Colorado
Department of Geography, GIS, & Sustainability
Campus Box 15
Greeley, CO 80639

Education

Ph.D. (2002) University of California, Berkeley, Economic Geography, Political Theory, American History

Professional Experience

Deputy Advisor, New York City Mayor's Office (1988-1992). Responsibilities included the analysis and development of transportation policy with an emphasis public transit.

Investment Manager, General Electric Capital Corporation (1984-1988). Responsibilities included the analysis and development of investment opportunities in transportation finance, with an emphasis on aircraft.

Research/Areas of Interest

State theory, Federalism, Urbanization, Transportation, Housing, and Land use policy

Publications

Johnson Katherine M. (2021) "The Longest Line on the Map" (book review). New Mexico Historical Review, 96 (3). Fall 2021

Johnson, Katherine M. (2021) The American Road: Highways and American Political Development, University of Kansas Press June 2021.

Johnson, Katherine M. (2016/2007). Greeley Indicators Report. Department of Community Development, City of Greeley, Colorado.

Johnson, Katherine M. (2009) "Captain Blake versus the Highwaymen, or How San Francisco Won the Freeway Revolt" Urban Planning History 8 (1), pp. 47-74.

Johnson, Katherine M., and Charles G. Schmidt (2009), "Room to Grow: Urban Ambitions and the Limits to Growth in Weld County, Colorado," Urban Affairs Review, 44 (4), pp: 525-553

Honors

Excellence in Social Science Research and Scholarly Activities, University of Northern Colorado
April 2007