

Are you a good listener?

Are you passionate about ending sexual assault, intimate partner violence or stalking?

Then an Internship at A.S.A.P. might be the perfect fit for you!

ASAP provides confidential services for survivors of sexual assault, intimate partner violence and stalking as well as their friends, family, and concerned others.

Pros

- A very positive working environment
- Really feel like you're making a difference
- Working toward real change in the UNC and Greeley community
- Create close relationships with other advocates

Cons

- Stressful at times
- Emotionally draining
- 35+ hours of training required
- Must be available 24 hours a day for at least 2 weeks a semester

As an intern at the Assault Survivor's Advocacy Program, your main role will be as a peer advocate. You will be responsible for completing a 35 hour training program at the beginning of the semester to insure that you have the proper knowledge to perform individual advocacy. Once completed you will be required to take one on-call and one back-up shift throughout the semester, during which you are available 24 hours a day. You will also help in the office by planning peer education programs, presenting these programs and helping to maintain that the office runs smoothly.
