Eldergarden is a nonprofit program in Greeley, CO, that takes care of seniors during daytime hours. Seniors are able to avoid costly nursing home placement by continuing to live in their family's home and coming to Eldergarden during daytime hours.

Are you looking for an extremely rewarding internship opportunity that allows you to work hands-on with a group of fun-loving elderly folks? Do you love to play Bingo? Do you enjoy making conversation and drinking coffee? If you are an energetic and positive person who enjoys helping others and brightening other people's days, this would be a perfect fit for you. If you are aspiring to work in a non-profit organization, social work, counseling, etc., you will get the experience you are seeking in your internship with Eldergarden.

Pro's:

- Build lasting relationships
- Able to work around your busy school schedule
- Play games and participate in fun activities and crafts
- Free, home-cooked breakfast and lunch!
- No paperwork!
- Opportunity to see how non-profit businesses are structured and run
- Able to sit in on board meetings/staff meetings if desired

Cons:

- Some participants can be difficult at times
- Sometimes, uh... stinky
- Can be hard to watch the aging process/medical issues
- Need to fit your hours in between 7:30 and 4:30 Monday through Friday only

Students from Margaret Dance Group entertain us with ballet.

A big round of ping pong. Lots of action all at once and the staff gets to pick up whatever falls on the floor.
