This suggested schedule assumes that a student will begin at the elementary level of a continental European language. This worksheet is a recommended schedule to complete your bachelor's degree in 4 years. Every UNC student must meet the following requirements in order to graduate with a bachelor's degree: earn a minimum of 120 semester credit hours; possess a minimum of a 2.00 cumulative grade point average; have at least 40 credit hours in courses designated as Liberal Arts Core; meet all degree requirements in the student's major field of study. Each major and/or emphasis may have additional requirements necessary for graduation. Students must consult with their major advisor to receive information on any additional graduation requirements.

Notes

1. All work to be counted toward the degree must be beyond the first year level.
2. Unless otherwise noted, all courses with a FR, GER, or SPAN prefix are conducted in French, German, or Spanish respectively. Courses with the EUR prefix are conducted in English, with some reading and/or writing assignments in each student's language of emphasis, as determined by the instructor.
3. Students must demonstrate competency in certain areas of language activity: oral and written proficiency in foreign language, ability to apply one's knowledge of the culture to appropriate situations in a foreign language environment.
4. To graduate with degree in European Languages and Cultures, students must have a 2.5 GPA in those courses that count toward the major and were taken at UNC.
5. Opportunity for study abroad junior year.
