

Minor in French

Minor Requirements

18 credits

The French emphases at UNC stresses acquisition of four language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Classes at all levels are performance-oriented, geared toward proficiency in the language and conducted in French. Students also develop skills in critical thinking as they acquire familiarity with French-language literature and civilization. The program's extracurricular activities encourage cultural awareness while developing leadership and organizational and promotional abilities.

Notes

Variable topic courses may be taken for credit toward the French minor only when approved by the student's faculty advisor in French.

Courses with FR prefix are conducted in French unless otherwise noted in course descriptions.

All work to be counted toward the French Minor, Liberal Arts Emphasis, must be beyond the first year level.

Students are encouraged to enrich their French language-related cultural awareness through regular participation in program-sponsored activities. Consult program advisor.

Students must maintain a minimum grade point average of 2.5 in those courses that count towards the minor and that are taken at UNC.

Advising with a faculty advisor for the French minor is suggested before registration.
