#IAMSUCCESS: Registration Ready

Registration will open in one month, so we have three MUST DOS to prepare.

Look over your Degree Works to determine what classes you need to complete.

- Anything with the Green Check is good and done.
- Red Circles are the requirements you need to fulfill (focus on and ask your advisor about these sections)
- And Blue Half-Circles are the requirements in progress.

Write down 6-7 class options to discuss with your Advisor.

Look at the course offerings through URSA.

You can compare the classes being offered over the Summer and Fall to your 4-year plan and Degree Works.

To view the course options, click on "Look Up Classes" and search for the term and subject. While you are looking over the course offerings, consider study abroad or internship interests that may impact your plan.

You should also identify what credit-load you feel most successful with. To graduate in 4 years, students need to average 15 credits (5 classes) per semester, but taking summer and interim classes can help with this balance.

Some students take more and others fewer: it depends on what you need and want!

Meet with your Advisor! Now is the time to schedule a meeting with your advisor to discuss your plan and your program.

Save your PIN (a 6-digit number to access registration).

Bonus Tip: you can use Degree Works to run What-If audits to see how adding a minor or changing your major vibes with your current courses. The What-If feature shows you exactly how the credits you already have will apply to the changes.

Actions and Reminders

You can withdraw from individual courses through March 9. Why does that matter?

Withdrawing from a course does not impact your GPA if you need to leave a class. You will not receive any refunds on tuition, however.

The Reisher Scholarship application is due on March 15. Apply through the Universal Scholarship application, and you may be eligible for full financial support for the remaining years at UNC. A goal of the program is to help Colorado students earn their undergraduate degrees without incurring additional educational debt.

Spring Break runs from Saturday, March 14 through Sunday, March 22. The coaches will be around, so stop in or call if you need anything!

Registration is around the corner (April), so NOW is the time to meet up with your advisor.

Grab information on the Reorganization and submit any questions to the new site.

Events Around

Visit the UNC Calendar

Farewell to the Yucca Fountain | March 11 from 4-7 pm. The installation is going on the road, but before it leaves UNC you can grab a snack at 1950s prices one last time.

Baseball and Softball season is ramping up. Cheer for your fellow HSS Bears throughout the month at Jackson Field and Gloria Rodriguez Field.

The Track and Field team has the Tom Benich Invitational on March 28 at Nottingham Field.

The Big Sky Conference Basketball Tournament runs March 9 through March 13 in Boise, Idaho. You can watch women's and men's games on PlutoTV.

What a month for the Bears!
