IM&T Project Requests are required for any of the following:
- Any technology request that requires central funding
- Any technology request that requires substantial IM&T staffing resources to implement and/or support
- Any technology request that requires a data feed or will communicate to large populations of students, staff, or faculty
- Any technology request that poses a potential information security threat
- Requests submitted through the Facilities Capital Request process do not need to be submitted through the IM&T Process.