

Before You Begin

Academic scheduling is a complex process involving many units on campus. Decision-making begins with the academic unit. Each unit is represented by an academic scheduler, who works with faculty and administration to build and maintain course offerings. Many concerns involving your active / upcoming student population in Canvas courses can be addressed with your department's course scheduler. They are the ones in charge of populating your courses with students from Banner into Canvas LMS.

Please take a look at the list below for your department's Course Scheduler (as of 2019 academic year).
