Affidavit of Financial Support for International Students

International applicants to the University of Northern Colorado seeking F1 or J1 visa are required to provide proof of financial support in the amount of the estimated cost of attendance for one academic year. If a bank statement provided for this purpose is not issued in the student's name, the sponsor will need to complete this form to confirm financial support for the student. Please complete this form in English and return it to international.advising@unco.edu.
