

FRIENDS OF THE UNC LIBRARIES

NEWS FLASH!

April 23rd, 2013

Sheila Bolsover, Chair

The Friends of the UNC Libraries hosted two events this month. The first was the annual Pizza Party for the staff at Michener Library and Skinner Music Library.

This lunch is our way of acknowledging and honoring the people who work in the UNC Libraries, during National Library Week. Thank you, library staff, for all the great work you do in providing the community with a portal to the outside world.

For a few days we were uncertain about whether snowstorms were ever going to abate and let us hold this event. However, we managed to do it on Thursday 18th instead of the planned date of the 15th. There was a good turnout and the pizza was, as usual, delicious.

Many thanks to Kalen May, as usual; to John Dietz for arranging the pizza delivery and staying to host, to Carol Davies and Phyllis Endicott and other members who turned up to serve pizza and drinks—and to eat!

Gallery Coordinator Colette Pitcher brought us a wonderful, eclectic 2012/2013 season of art exhibitions at the Michener Gallery. What a tour de force it was! Quilts and baseball, jewelry and sculpture, and ending with the annual Greeley Art Association juried show and Ann Roche's individual show, we were given a wonderful demonstration of the artists living and working in Northern Colorado. Thank you, Colette. We are looking forward to the 2013/2014 exhibitions.

Congratulations also to Ann, (pictured below) whose wonderful collection of vibrant art—JOURNEYS was the closing exhibition for this season.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The annual general meeting of the Friends is scheduled for Wednesday, May 15th at noon. Please make a note of it in your calendar. See you there!
