Join the University Libraries and the English Education Program for Read-Ins

The English Education Program and University Libraries revive a tradition: the Read-In. On the first Tuesday of each month, from 11:00am-1:00 pm, there will be public readings of texts (literary or otherwise) that celebrate or commemorate a theme relevant to that month. All Read-Ins are held on the main floor of Michener Library.

Topics for spring include:

- FEBRUARY - a special Read-In will honor Black Americans on WED, 2/13 from 11AM-1PM with a BLACK HISTORY MONTH Read in Redux. Come join us as a reader or a listener. Snacks provided!
- MARCH - We'll read from the work of women as part of WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH.
- APRIL - TWO events: on Tues. 4/2 we welcome all things FOOLISH and on Mon. 4/22, from 10:00-12:00*, we join in Greeley's Holocaust Commemoration by reading works from or about the HOLOCAUST (*Note the time change.)
- MAY? Well, we'll read about CRITTERS for National Pet Month!
