

Course Sequence for Master of Science in Dietetics with Dietetic Internship
Effective beginning Fall 2024

Fall Courses – Year One (9 credits)
FND 551 – Nutritional Biochemistry and Metabolism/Macronutrients– 3 credits SES 602 or SRM 600 – Research Methods– 3 credits Elective Course (see options below)– 3 credits *Capstone planning with advisor
Spring Courses – Year One (9 credits)
FND 553 – Nutritional Biochemistry and Metabolism/Micronutrients– 3 credits FND 620 – Current Topics in Nutrition and Dietetics – 3 credits FND 652 – Public Health Nutrition – 3 credits *Capstone planning with advisor
Summer – Year One
*Capstone implementation (see capstone guidebook for timeline)
Fall Courses – Year Two (9 credits)
FND 530 – Nutrition Assessment & Intervention Methods – 3 credits FND 610 – Nutrition Communication– 3 credits Elective Course (see options below) – 3 credits
Spring Courses – Year Two (8 credits)
FND 686 – Dietetics Capstone – 5 credits FND 570 – Nutrition Counseling Methods – 3 credits Preceptors for Dietetic Internship will be due this semester by the end of January
Year Three (20 credits)
FND 592 – Dietetics Supervised Practice – 20 credits (full- or part-time)
Summary
Academic Required Courses – 35 credits Supervised Practice – 20 credits Total Credits = 55

Elective Options (Elective options alternate each year. You will be provided a list of FND and approved non-FND elective options prior to registration. Non-FND electives should still be approved by advisor)

- FND 622 – Directed Studies in Dietetics (3)
- FND 625 – Advanced Maternal and Child Nutrition (3)
(Cannot take FND 625 if have taken FND 520)
- FND 655 – Sports Nutrition (3)
(Cannot take FND 655 if have taken FND 555)