

VR 101: History, System & Process

Case Codes and Rehabilitation Process Diagram from North Carolina

The following diagram shows how an applicant moves through the vocational rehabilitation process. Below the diagram, each of the codes and steps in the process are explained with links for further information.

This information may seem arcane but familiarizing yourself with the nomenclature (lingo) used by VR professionals when referring to a client's migration through the VR system. Test your new knowledge.

